No Tax Needed for Public Transit: Worthington

Manager Outlines Specific Plans for Central County

By BOB RAPIDA

Public Transit in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties will not need to be subsidized by tax monies, according to John Worthington, general manager of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District.

Worthington pointed out to a group of central county residents at Fair Oaks School Wednesday night that the transit district will be able to operate in the black on revenue from fares without having to depend on tax dollars.

"IN ALL PROBABILITY, the 1.4 cent per hundred dollars of assessed valuation tax now levied by the district will be dropped after the first year that the district is in operation," Worthington stated.

Worthington outlined a highly developed motor coach system for Central Contra Costa which includes air conditioned motor coaches, wide seats and riding comfort.

Taking into consideration the school transportation problems of the area, Worthington discussed the advantages of having public transportation thusly getting the school districts out of the transportation business.

"CONSIDERABLE savings can be afforded to the taxpayer by utting an end to school district transportation service," he commented.

"We have an agency (transit district) which can charge for hauling children to school. Whereas, under the present system all must pay for the transportation of relatively few children," Worthington continued.

In most central county school districts, most children walk to and from school, according to the County Superintendent of Schools Office.

MARSTEN CAMPBELL, a parking lot operator and management consultant from Oakland, appeared at the meeting to warn residents they were being promised "Utopia with no practical solution in sight."

Otto Strobel, chairman of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council Highway and Transportation committee, who chaired the meeting, asked Worthington if a definite plant had been established for the central county area.

Worthington outlined a program of local service running from Concord through the residential areas of Pleasant Hill into Walnut Creek from the north and neighborhood service from the southern and eastern reaches of Walnut Creek into the downtown area.

FOR LAFAYETTE and Orinda, Worthington pointed out there would be service from Lafayette to Moraga to Orinda through business and residential areas.

"All these lines, we feel, will receive the support of the public since there is a need for public transportation in the rapidly expanding Central Contra Costa area," Worthington said.

The transit expert noted that there was not a disproportionate taxing situation at the present time between Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

He stated that it is far more expensive to operate transit system in the suburban areas, where the land value is lower and the mileage farther than in the heavily settled areas of Berkeley, Oakland and San Leandro.

WORTHINGTON compared the Hayward area's problems as being approximately in line with Central Contra Costa's.

Answering charges made by Campbell that the transit district was a "plot to bail out Oakland and a scheme of Oakland merchants," Worthington noted:

"A transit system runs two ways, to a location and back again. We foresee local transit from one Central Contra Costa community to another and one residential area to another rather than county to county travel.

"ALTHOUGH WE will involve ourselves with commuter transportation to Oakland and San Francisco, we are thinking in terms of serving the local areas first and then developing feeder lines to some form of Rapid Transit which will link the five counties of the Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission," Worthington explained.

Asked why a local improvement district was not formed by the district's board of directors for the sole purchase of Key, Worthington commented:

Contra Costa County is in the district, the portion to be expended for the Key System holdings we want is a minor portion of the entire bond issue.

"THE AMOUNT is some $7 million. We will buy 334 new buses, many of which will serve Contra Costa, for nearly $8 million.

"We will establish a bus terminal in Concord. We will purchase 40 of Western Greyhound Lines' buses. We will take over the operations of Western Greyhound lines as far as commuter service is concerned.

"The transit district will not need tax money since our service can be good, we will not pay taxes, other than certain state gas taxes, and we have no profit motive.

"DELEUW-CATHER Company, our consulting engineers have determined that our operational cost will be $1.4 million less than Key's present cost," the long time transit engineer, consultant and manager continued.

"The transit district fare will be 20 cents as compared to Key's 25 cent fare, but there will be a bigger difference in the service than just changing the fare boxes.

"We will be working for the public and will have the best interest of the public as our main concern rather than turning a dollar," said Worthington.

OUTLINING the financial status of the district in its first year of operation, Worthington commented the district would take in some $12,670,000 in revenues, its estimated expenses, including depreciation would be some $11,808,000 leaving an operating income of $862,000.

Interest on the initial $12 million of bonds sold of the $16.9 million issue which will appear on the November ballot will be $360,000 at three per cent.

Worthington explained that the district would be able to get three per cent money since the bonds were of the general obligation type and the financing is available now.

THE FINANCIAL report was completed by Worthington when he said the district would have a net income in its first year of operation of $502,000.

"Based on present levels of prices, wages and fare, our studies clearly show that the transit system will be self supporting," Worthington claimed.

In the summary of the Public Transit Plan for the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, issued by DeLeuw-Cather Company, specific streets and routes are indicated for the entire central county area.

IN THIS REPORT, an additional exhibit is provided indicating facilities after the first five years of operation of the district.

Copies of the summary are available at the transit district's headquarters at the Hotel Claremont in Berkeley.

Alan Bingham, information director of the district, urged that residents inform the district of particular problems and or areas of service which should be afforded by the district in the central county area.

Colonel Robert Copeland, at large director of the district, stated he was elected by the people to serve them and it was his desire to see that Contra Costa is served properly by the district.

ANSWERING CHARGES that the plan for Contra Costa was just a "sop" for the purchase of Key, Worthington stated that it was the sincere desire of the district and its directors to provide good, inexpensive public transportation for all the people of the district.

Asked if the central county were to petition to get out of the district, would the directors permit exclusion, Worthington at first refused to answer the question, but later stated "I think not."

COPELAND NOTED the transit district has cost individual taxpayers of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties approximately the price of three packages of cigarettes (66 cents) for the past two years.

In the future it will cost less than that and provide a service which is vitally necessary to the growth and development of the two counties," Copeland said.

Should the bond issue in November pass, said Worthington, buses will be in operation on prescribed routes in the central county area by July 1, 1959.

He stated that at least 35 buses would be put into operation in the Walnut Creek-Concord area alone.

Gifts to Visitors, Tours to Feature Orinda Open House

Gifts ranging from ice cream cones to a $50 savings account and a tour of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's central office will be included in the community-wide Orinda Open House Friday evening, October 3, and Saturday, October 4.

Al Baer, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce merchants committee in charge of the celebration, said yesterday that every day additional stores and institutions are reporting plans to take part.

JUST HOW direct distance dialing equipment works will be one of the mysteries demonstrated when guided tours are provided through the maze of equipment in the telephone building, one of the few times the public has been permitted to see such a system in operation.

In addition to direct dialing, telephone company representatives will show how the automatic computing system works.

On the PT&T parking lot will be manned displays including hole-digging rigs for telephone poles and micro-wave demonstrations.

It will be easy for visitors to get from the telephone building to displays in other parts of the area, Baer pointed out, because free bus service will be provided the evening of Friday, October 3, when hours for the Open House will be from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. On the following day, exhibits and demonstrations will continue from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED for the first evening of the Open House are band concerts in both Orinda and Orinda Village.

Some of the features of demonstrations and displays by firms and institutions as planned for so far:

Pacific Gas and Electric Company will show a cutaway model of the atomic power plant at Livermore and show a moving picture, called "License No. 1," concerning its operation.

The Army will show and explain the operations of a Nike missile.

At Station No. 1 the Fire Department will demonstrate the use of resuscitator equipment.

Greyhound Bus Lines will make available for inspection the latest model in transcontinental buses.

MAYNARD BUEHLER, former chamber president, will show "the eight most powerful rifles in the world."

Permission was being sought to have tours of the Post Office so that patrons can see just how mail is sorted and dispatched.

James Lucas is arranging for a display by architects in the area.

Central Valley National Bank will give candy, cigarettes and cigars to guests, and conduct a free drawing in which prizes will be savings accounts. First prize will be $50, the second $25, the third $15, and there will be 12 for $1 each for youngsters under 12.

THE ORINDA SUN will be represented by a printing and newspaper exhibit.

A demonstration of shoe repairing will be given by the Village Shoe Shop. Women will be given free heels, and there will be gifts of popguns for youngsters.

Tommy Horton Cleaners will demonstrate cleaning and pressing equipment.

Ogden's will present a fashion show and conduct free drawings for sweaters.

FREE ICE CREAM cones will be provided by Polka Dot Restaurant.

Worden's Travel Agency will present a travel show.

Moraga Valley Nursery will give demonstrations on methods of planting and plant care, and repot plants free of charge.

Sprouse-Reitz will give away "do-it-yourself" Christmas decorations and serve refreshments.

$16.9 Million Bond Issue Called by Transit District

A bond issue of $16,900,000, including $13,200,000 for new equipment, storage yards and maintenance facilities, was placed on the November general election ballot Tuesday by directors of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

The final bond issue amount also includes $3,700,000 to purchase a portion of the buses currently in use by Key System and Western Greyhound lines.

AT THE SAME time Robert K. Barber, president of the district, said he was "incensed" by a resolution of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors earlier in the day which opposed any bond issue which the district might propose.

Barber pointed out the supervisors passed the resolution without ever consulting with the district as to the proposed benefits to be received under the district's program.

"Not once did the supervisors ask the district for information on the bond proposal, nor did the supervisors request the district to appear before the board to explain its prgoram." Barber said.

THE DISTRICT president addaction, the transit plan of the disactoin, the transit plan of the district was developed, in part, with the consultation and suggestions of staff engineers of city and county governments in Contra Costa County.

The program to be financed by the $16.9 mililon bond issue includes a network of new express bus routes, new local lines, the rehabilitation of more than 15 existing local routes, improvement of frequency on several transbay routes, and the purchase of a fleet of 334 new buses of advanced design and riding comfort.

THE PROPOSED program will provide new service to more than 100,000 residents of the district not now served by public transit, and will be a self-supporting operation requiring no additional tax revenues, according to De Leuw, Cather & Company, the firm of transportation engineering consultants which drew up the plan.

Improvements proposed for the first three years of operation include tightening of schedules to provide for increased speeds; rearrangement and lengthening of bus stops; development of offstreet transit terminals in Oakland, Berkeley, and possibly in San Leandro, Hayward. Walnut Creek and Concord; construciton of bus transfer stations at freeway interchanges, and provision of all-day parking facilities for park-and-ride patrons at strategic points served by the proposed express bus lines.

The bond measure will include financing for 334 new buses, $7,900,000; new bus maintenance and storage terminals at Hayward and Concord, $1,500,000 purchase of 276 postwar buses currently used by Key System, $3,300,000; 40 buses owned by Western Greyhound Lines, $400,000, and land and buildings used by Key System for terminals in Emeryville, Richmond and East Oakland, $3,800,000.

Concerning bus transfer stations at freeway interchanges, John R. Worthington, general manager, reported a meeting will be held later this month with representatives of the State Public Utilities Commission and the State Division of Highways for the purpose of assuring that adequate bus turnouts are constructed on the Mt. Diablo Boulevard freeway at Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

Engineer Declares El Toyanal Signals Are Not Justified

A preliminary check of both pedestrian and vehicular traffic at the intersection of El Toyonal and the new Orinda Bypass doesn't justify the installation of traffic signals there, according to Mark Kermit, traffic engineer.

Meanwhile, more than 500 residents of Orinda signed a petition asking for installation of signals at El Toyonal and prepared to submit it to the Board of Supervisors.

A traffic check indicates a volume of 2200 cars entering the intersection in a 24-hour period, Kermit said, and both state and county requirements call for an average of 500 cars an hour over an eight-hour period before signals are warranted in a rural area.

PEDESTRIAN TRAFFIC at the intersection, Kermit said, is far below the minimum requirement of 250 an hour.

During one Friday evening between 2 and 6 p.m., he reported, 68 pedestrians crossed at El Toyonal, with the breakdown showing that there were two between 2 and 3 p.m., 51 between 3 and 4 p.m., 11 between 4 and 5 p.m., and four between 5 and 6 p.m.

"In addition," Kermit noted, "we go by the number of accidents that have occurred at an intersection during the past year, and consider traffic signals if there have been five or more reoort accidents of types susceptible to prevention by traffic control.

"During the past three years there has not been a single report accident at the El Toyonal intersection—and the new bypass won't increase the amount of traffic.

THE FACT IS that installation of control signals at a place where the accident rate is low may actually create accidents by causing sudden stops."

"Our funds are limited," Kermit added. "We have to go by our figures, and measure the need of one location against that of another."

The petition to be presented to supervisors asked that "signals be installed now" to protect children crossing the highway at peak traffic hours, noted the "increased speed used on the freeway and increased heavy truck traffic," declared the safety island is too small, and said boys returning home from after-school sports "will have to cross peak homeward bound traffic at worst possible time."

Parents Club Organizes Groups To Play Bridge

A meeting of the Orinda Parents' Clubs Bridge Committee was held on September 11 at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Kastner, over-all chairman for the Parents' Club bridge program for this year. The meeting was attended by the bridge chairmen of the Parents' Clubs of the four grammar schools and the junior high school, and by the chairmen of the bridge sections.

At present, there will be 18 sections playing under the auspices of the Parents' Clubs, and more groups will be formed as the membership increases.

It is anticipated that all of the sections will start meeting within the next two weeks. There are to be three beginners sections, meeting on alternate Wednesdays; one group will be playing in the morning and two in the afternoon.

Of the remaining 15 sections, 12 will be playing regular "party bridge," and the other three will be playing duplicate. These groups will meet on Wednesday evenings and on Thursday and Friday mornings and afternoons, every other week throughout the year.

There are vacancies in most of the regular sections, and in the new Thursday afternoon duplicate section. Anyone interested in joining any of these sessions is asked to call one of the following school bridge chairmen: Mrs. P. M. Ashworth (Glorietta), CLifford 4-4057; Mrs. Leroy A. Bromley (Orinda), CLifford 4-4408; Mrs Edmund Lerch (Sleepy Hollow), CLifford 4-2622; Mrs. Frank J Kastner (Del Rey and Pine Grove), CLifford 4-3356.

A new couples section has been formed, with play scheduled for alternate Friday evenings. Mrs. James P. Dana (CLifford 4-3294) is the chairman for the Couples Bridge Sections, and inquiries in regard to playing in these groups should be addressed to her. As with the other sessions, new couples group will be started as the need arises.

The Parents' Clubs bridge sessions are open to anyone interested in playing bridge, and the committee has attempted to form sections that will offer the types of competition desired by players of all levels of experience, from the beginner to the advanced player. It is not necessary for one to have children in the Orinda schools in order to play in any of these groups.

County Supervisors Slam Transit District Proposal

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors Tuesday lashed out at the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District's proposed $16.9 million bond proposal to be placed on the November general election ballot.

In sharply worded statements, the supervisors each took a crack at the district following a report from Harry Morrison, secretary treasurer of the Contra Costa Transit Council.

THE COUNCIL was successful in its attempt to obtain a court ruling excluding the areas of Richmond and San Pablo from the district and its attempt to have 50 square miles of northern Contra Costa excluded from the district.

Three supervisors declared themselves opposed to the bond issue which will be used, in part, to purchase Key System's holdings and to establish a public two county transit program.

In a three point program the supervisors directed the district attorney to prepare a resolution urging voters of Contra Costa to defeat the measure.

THEY ORDERED a resolution urging the Contra Costa representatives on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to oppose a proposed resolution endorsing the Alameda Contra Costa Transit district bond measure.

The supervisors informed the district attorney that he is to find out if a statement explaining the county's reasons for opposing the bonds could be issued with sample ballots.

Jointly, supervisors Ray S. Taylor, Third District; Mel Nielsen, Second District and Ivan Goyak, First District, stated they were "unalterably opposed" to the proposed measure.

Chamber Told Library Opening Set for November

Celebration of the opening of Orinda's new library has been tentatively set for November 15, Maynard Buehler reported to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon Tuesday in Casa Orinda.

A letter from Dr. Wilbert Thomas, Oakland, asking suggestions from the chamber concerning rental of ground floor space in the Professional Building was referred to the board of directors.

Thomas pointed out that the building is zoned for professional use, and that members of the professions do not care to be on the ground floor. He asked for suggestions as to types of business to whom the ground floor could be leased.

Also referred to directors was the proposal by the County Associated Chambers of Commerce for the county to allot funds to the various chambers.

Ned deLaveaga reported that plans for a community dinner celebrating opening of the bypass had been abandoned.

Al Baer said the number of merchants taking part in the Orinda Open House, to be held October 3 and 4, was increasing each day, and asked for continued cooperation of chamber members.

Herman Silverman reported on publicity and public relations in connections with the Open House.

Bud Leiber, vice president, and Clarence Betz, secretary, presided in the absence of John Ogden, president.

Firms Urged To Join in Open House

All Orinda business firms were urged yesterday by Al Baer, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce merchants committee in charge of the Open House to be held Friday evening, October 3 and Saturday, October 4, to take part in the event.

"With more each day reporting plans to participate," Baer said, "this Open House promises to be one of the outstanding events of its kind in Central Contra Costa County.

"The enthusiasm and interest shown by utilities, the Armed Forces and large firms has been most heartening.

"But the most important part of the Open House is participation by each store, so that the public can get a real picture of what Orinda offers."

Baer pointed out that many hundreds will visit Orinda during the Open House.

"I urge every merchant to open his doors," Baer continued, "and show the public what makes your business tick.

"This Open House can be a tremendous success only with the fullest cooperation of every store in Orinda. Your store, in turn, will benefit to the extent of the effort you put into it.'

Baer asked that all firms which have not already done so plan exhibits or demonstrations, decide on refreshments or souvenirs, and inform him.

He may be contacted at the Village Shoe Shop.

Orinda Lions Party Ready

The annual barbecue of the Orinda Lions Club will be held tomorrow at Wildwood Acres in Lafayette.

General chairman is Joe Navone. Serving on his committee are Ben Sqires, finance; Bart McMahon, refreshments; Ken Courtright, tickets; George Hartzell Sr., games; Carl Miller, prizes, and Joe Smith, laborers.

James Lucas, club president, will put the steaks over the charcoal and come up with delicious "rare or medium" servings.

There will be dancing, games, and entertainment. "Early ticket sales indicate a wonderful gathering and to top it all, the weather man promises fair skies," Courtwright said.

Days Stay Warm But Nights Cool

The sun kept shining on Orinday last week, sending the mercury up to a maximum of 95 on Tuesday. But nights grew cooler as with the beginning of fall. Highs and lows for the past seven days:

	High	Low
September 11	75	47
September 12	73	55
September 13	87	47
September 14	90	49
September 15	94	48
September 16	95	50
September 17	84	58

Members Sought By Parents Club

The Glorietta Parents Club membership drive started on September 23.

The dues of $1 per year include each child in the family attending Glorietta School, said Mrs. Eugene Reid, membership chairman.

"Besides helping to meet the Parents Club budget, the dues also furnish library books, athletic equipment, musical instruments, and refreshments at general meetings," she pointed out.

This year parents are being asked to bring their dues with them when they attend room meetings.

Board Meets

The Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association will hold its annual get-together cocktail party between 4 and 7 p.m. tomorrow at the pool, according to Bill Leonard, association president.

County to Close La Espiral Road

La Espiral Road Orinda will be closed for the next two weeks between El Verano and La Vuelta while road repairs are made, according to Fred Johnson, engineer in charge.

Schedules Talks

Dr. George Hedley of Mills College and Dr. Robert Fitch of the Pacific School of Religion will speak at the Orinda Community Church on the first four Wednesdays in October at 8 o'clock.

Sun Classified Ads Hit 526-- Bring Results!

The number "526" can be a magic number—or it can be just any number at all.

This week, it is a magic number for sure. That is the number of individual classified advertisements carried in any one copy of The Sun last week.

Classified advertising is generally judged by the number of people who use it and the number of people who read it. It naturally follows that the more classified ads a newspaper has, the more readership it has, and consequently the more results for classified users.

In comparison with The Sun's 526 classified ads last week, one other Central Contra Costa weekly carried 127 ads and the other 143.

This means that The Sun carried 248 more classified ads than the other two papers combined.

So next time you are considering buying or selling something, or you are in need of a service, consider The Sun classified pages. It's easy to see that hundreds of others do—and they get results!

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Do You Remember One September Afternoon?

We sat & listened to a twinkling tune . . . . Answered Pat Higgins' SUN Ad re: sale of old German Music Box w/30 pleasurable old platters, so Wknd. started off w/a BANG! From Mr. M at the other end of the line. Who suggested instead, we repair the organ, the zither, the Italian ocarina the kids managed to stuff marbles into. Oh, Well! Happy hillside hunting w/the hummingbirds. Then to the store for supplies.

COLLIDED CARTS w/Claire Ward wearing a handsome new set of rings (Same old diamond!), her 20th Annvy. gift from Ritchie after the pair recited their vows again in SF, then enjoyed Cliff House lunch. Bumped bumpers w/Jean Downs who told us that Hoppy & Faye Hopkins flew off to NY last wk. Europe-bound. Over the lettuce, Lois Denning w/item that batchelor boys next-door, George Skinner (he runs Russell's Items of Art Shop) & Galen Piepenberg (noted organist, he plays at Sea Wolf), are Europe-bound, too. By boat to Amsterdam hitting 8 countries in all, 2 mos. So Bon Voying the bachelors at Lois & Jim's recently were the Bill Lannings, Cliff Petersons, Walt Ruedrichs, Aubrey Petersons, Howard Hollars.

Came home up that crazy new El Toyonal intersection as car careened right Smack! through the road signs still there. Passed perspiring bet & heavy-laden w/books, Miramonte students climbing the hills in the heat while half-empty school buses sailed by. Stopped car, loaded kids. Unloaded kids, stopped car, stashed away 10 bag-loads of vittles so next morning Hubby could holler "WHERE is the BREAD?" Which wasn't. Plenty of cold cuts, roast beef, ground meat, mixed nuts, sundae making, fruit & soups, but not a single slice of bread. WHAT a LIFE. With a Wife who forgets the Staff of Life!

Children along, chugged down to Park Pool. Signed the card for both Peggy Kirby & Jerry Hays who were presented Sunday w/Med. (book) money for Jerry, & mad-money & purse for Peg, BOTH thanked from all for summer swim services far beyond the line of duty.

Once Upon a Weekend, Dearie . . .

AFTER FRIDAY FISH FARE, lingered over coffee on the terrace, the sibilant song of the crickets providing symphonic music. Hubby still made we broke new LP needle moving record player outdoors. But Cricket Music very good. Imagine all that noise by just rubbing their back legs together!

OUT IN THE SUMMER NITE to the Orchard Nursery for Valley Art Center's 10th Annual Art Show & Preview Night, already a throng at 8:30 for cocktails & canapes w/Canvass & Crafts creations. . . . Pres. Dick Ward w/Ann who is charming social chrmn., SHE in white short fur wrap over brilliant blue silk . . . Tall Helen Malley dispensing refreshments as were the Jim Fords. Verna & Bill Wilke wandering around (she makes most beautiful braided rugs). Their dghtr's art work won honors at County Fair.

At the door, a handsome array of paintings, Blanche Brody's oil-line portrait of "Mother & Child," subject being her neighbor Celia Luthy & son Kevin.

OUTSIDE, against the fountain background, Marian Steinback of Laf. admiring the glass-tiled table by Mildred Simon who teaches a mosaic class SOON. The Gordon Ainsworths host & hostessing w/smiling hellos & some funny stories about dghtr. Adeline's newly-acquired horse. You know the old adge "Never look a gift horse, etc." . . . just ask Jav!

LAFAYETTE ARTISTS represented—Karl Kasten, Lenore Vigt, Alleene Stoeffler, Mona Beaumont . . . Orinda's Teddy Gardener's sea abstract in fine color. Bewhiskered Canyon artist Jonathan Bachelor being introduced by Burt Brody. The Brodys w/plans to attend the Monterey Jazz Festival when the Little Symphony of which he's a board member will play . . . classical jazz, that iz! George & Alice Welsh back home after a psychology-teaching stint for HIM at Chapel Hill, N. C.

Elizabeth Johnston, pondering a painting while we still pondered a sculpted piece titled "Togetherness". . . Helen Kilpatrick's bronze horse a BEAUTY, NEXT to it a charming chipmunk studded w/amber-gold tiles by Fern LaFond. Brieve Bouche, Gloria Brown among the craftsmen.

NIGHTCAP NOTE from Tunnell Inn: Bumped into Eva Rae & John Dry-Henich of Laf. w/their dghtr. along, she being one of Willie Baranco's fans. He plays special numbers for her as he did for the Don Westcotts who were celebing their 6th Wedding Annvy. Enjoyed community sing of favorite songs.

SATURDAY, beautiful bright day, for painting, puttering. Hubby had lunch at T-Bones & bought his own bread. (Just to make sure! Have you EVER forgotten salt for 3 days running?) And Sunday paper. Which we always read on Saturday.

Sat. nite wiggled into white organdy for a last dose of summer. Went forth to the Country Club w/sweater & coat, neither which we needed. A perfect nite for dining & dancing under the stars, the soft light of lanterns circling the pool. BACK to a night on the old Barbary Coast!

LUCKY GIRLS, those Lombardy Members. No reason to worry! Which is what they do EVERY year just before their Big Party. One gent reported his wife-member won't even say G'morning 'til he's given her the full weather report & assured her pretty little head buried in the pillows that it's not raining or going to blow up.

AT THE TICKET table, and looking more chic than Lola Montez ever could manage, Bev Schwatka & Dorothy Benley . . . A black derby on Miles Sutliffe. The Jack Coopers w/the Rudy Rascussens. Red geraniums on a white sweater-dress for Betty Pilgrim, SHE & Moore hosting a Cotillion party for 125 next day. Another match-mated ensemble for Cinders McFarland. She and Bob will be Carmel-conventioning next month. Bill Scatena placing a sweet welcome back buss on Caroline Read who indeed looked Spanish-influenced after a 6-mos. residence there, hers a brilliant orange SACK. The Reads home leaving their boys behind them, schooling in Switzerland.

DINNER TABLE HUDDLE . . . Ted Boyce w/Cay Snover awaiting Gene's late arrival from a business trip to Reno . . . The Alex Kirgs, Maxine & Lew Doty, the Maury Bleuels who are new in the former Hagstrom house . . . The Nels Hambergs, his sister Bobby & husband Mel Berry from Concord. Dana & Bill Cook, HER sheath of gold & white cloth brought from Bagdad.

And at one table, an eye-popper! Sitting there so lady-like, leisurely lifting their Corona-Coronas in their pretty little patties, three we-won't-mention-their-name ladies. No, NOT a new fad, just holding the stogies for their spouses who were off on the dance floor awhile. Relieved.

A BONGO DRUMBEAT FOR "Bahia," everyone trying a few fancy steps to Paul Faria's fine music . . . The Jack Gregorys awhirl, ditto Bob Pridemores, Gordon Markleys. Kay & Bill Arends w/the George Drysdales, the Rollin Moores. If there were people-watchers perched in the oaks, they'd have agreed that the Species Suburbanites in their natural habitat were having themselves a most Superbia Time!

Sun. Morn. & the Rooster Crows. Church Bells Chime. Up w/the chickens inherited from the Bill Thurstons family who left later in the day for their new home in Glendora. If Jean was sad & weepy-eyed, she could cry on the pretty hankies showered on her at a recent party at Beryl Hoyers. Gifting the delicate linens & laces were Isabel Coates, Leona Wilson, Kay Brush, Lucie Hupp, Mabel Moorman w:Rose Lancione dropping in later w/dghtr. Linda's letters from France & the excitement of her trip over w/other AFS students.

BILL LANCIONE, by the way, broke his leg last wk. After church, out Miner Road on an errand passing one of our favorite houses, the shell-colored Colonial belonging to Vivian & Dallas Young who celebrated their 2nd wedding annivy. w/a dinner party recently.

Recalled that Nan & Don Davison (just back from NY & Phila.), Ann & George Lenz, Clarence & Dorothy Hagerele, Jack & Alice Hamilton were among those offering TOASTS w/the MOSTS. Coming from Oakland were Ed & Marian Hart and from SF, Michael & Gertrude King. With all those names in our head, no wonder we can't remember salt & bread!

SUN. AFTERNOON, sweet Indian Summer, took the jeune fry along & followed the smoke signals up to La Fiesta de Orinda at Santa Maria Church, the steaks being barbecued all afternoon. We saw Irv Moore, aproned & checker-shirted, darting to the kitchen. Andy & Peggy O'Brien perambulating their twins . . . Linda Sage winning a hula hoop . . . Sev Schnugg coping w/5 strawberry ice cream cones, her 4 young ladies all dressed alike in sailor dresses.

Sheriff Harry Brown & Dolly in a large dinner group . . . George Wheeler's good mike voice penetrating the throng . . . Dorothy Hampton w/her four, she & Bob just back from a flying trip East . . . Mary Tokich taking over for Pat Loughman in the Children's Fishing Booth.

HOMEWARD w/a houseful for dinner, outside. To more cricket calls, lantern lights, an ethereal setting. If only the kids would keep quiet so we could enjoy it. Glad the weekend, however wonderful, is over, Monday & it's peace & quiet to come soon.

CERTIFICATES were awarded about 70 performers at end of meet. John Rinne, left, winner of boys back stroke, receives congratulations from Eric Nielsen, Jaycee president, and Clarinda Tefler, third place winner in girls backstroke, shakes hands with Jack Sanders, Park Pool president.

Ribbon-Cutting By Mel Nielsen Opens Bypass

"By cutting this ribbon I hereby officially open the Orinda By-pass to traffic."

Supervisor Mel Nielsen Wednesday noon wielded the shears in a simple ceremony that marked the completion of the latest link in the county highway system, designed to carry heavy traffic around the Orinda Village business district and eliminate congestion in the bypassed section.

Representing the Orinda Chamber of Commerce at the event were John Ogden, president; Clarence Betz, secretary-treasurer, and Ned deLaveaga, committee chairman for the bypass opening.

Vic Sauer, director of the Public Works Department, took part in the highway dedication, as did Supervisors Ray Taylor, Joe Silva and Bud Buchanan.

Also present was George Brockhurst, 87, who has lived in Orinda since 1883.

"He has probably lived here longer than anyone else," Betz pointed out.

Assault Charge Against Orindan Is Dismissed

A charge of assault with a deadly weapon against Norman H. Cunningham, 26, of Orinda, has been dismissed at the request of his wife, Elizabeth, the reported victim.

Cunningham's bail of $2,500 was exonerated by Judge Otto Lichti.

The charge against Cunningham was brought after his wife was found stumbling along an Orinda road early June 25. She was suffering from severe head wounds, and was treated at Peralta Hospital. The couple had been returning to their home at 8 Overhill Road from San Francisco.

Phillip Angell Jr., Cunningham's attorney, said Cunningham had no recollection of the incident, had been working long hours and had had several drinks.

Cunningham is a television account executive.

Reliez Valley Improvement Group Meets

The executive board of the Reliez Valley Improvement Association held its first meeting of the fall September 10 at the home of Dr. Richard Fulghum, 3353 McGraw Lane, Lafayette.

Plans were discussed for the general meeting of the association which is held in October each year.

The group has gone on record as wishing to remain outside the Lafayette incorporation area.

It has requested a survey by the Flood Control District to determine possible action on water problems in the valley, and asked the Public Works Department to repair and make safe for pedestrian school children Reliez Valley Road.

It is expected that a speaker from the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District will attend the general meeting to present its transit program to the membership.

The association includes all residents in the area from Pleasant Hill Road to Echo Springs Road.

Board members are F. E. Kosen, president; Dr. H. M. Sandford, Frank Rossi, Alvin Schwerin, William Barron, Dr. George Thomas, Dr. Fulghum, Mrs. B. V. Bastian, Mrs. James Poulton, Edward Mecchi and Stanley Ezneckier.

Art Center Sponsors Class

The Orinda Art Center will sponsor again this year Saturday morning art classes for all Orinda children in the fourth through eighth grades.

The first 10 week session will begin September 27. Classes will be held from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. in the Glorietta all purpose room. Sign-ups will be at nine on the morning of the first class.

There is a $3 fee, payable in advance to cover the cost of supplies. Mrs. Leigh and Mrs. Almstead will be the instructors. Both are from the California College of Arts and Crafts.

For further information call Helen Gibbs at CL 4-5452 or Helen Jones at DR 6-4480.

Flood Damaged Roads Cost Contra Costa $1.2 Million

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors was informed Tuesday by Public Works Director Victor W. Sauer that $1,272,000 has been expended on flood damaged roads in the county.

Sauer stated that some $415,000 in projects have not as yet been started.

SAUER POINTED out there had been delay on some projects because clearance and approval of the Bureau of Public Roads is necessary before any work can be done.

In summary, Sauer said, the majority of the work to be accomplished consists primarily of Federal Aid projects and contracts for this work will be called on a continuing basis during the next few months.

"A considerable amount of cleanup work, amounting to approximately $100,000, was accomplished by our road crews, with no participation for reimbursement by state or federal agencies," Sauer said.

SAUER LISTED the following projects, all over $5000, as being complete or in progress:

Normandy Lane, $73,000; Monte Vista, 5600; Bobolink Road $14,050; Sleepy Hollow Lane, $6900; Fish Ranch Road, $13,650; Edgewood Road, $6000; Rheem Boulevard, $5280; Ardor Drive and Loma Linda Court, $6400; Fish Ranch Road, $13,500; Camino Tasajara, $7000.

Rheem Boulevard, $7500; Crockett Boulevard, $180,000; Edgewood Road, $11,000; Camino Sobrante, $5200; Bear Creek Road, $15,000; East Alta Orinda, $8300; Boulevard Way Bridge, $19,800; Moraga Road, $25,000; El Toyonal, $10,000; Via Floreado, $12,000; El Toyonal, $5000.

CHARLES HILL ROAD, $6400; Bear Creek Road, $17,500; La Espiral, $25,500; San Vicente and Las Flores, $8430; Bailey Road, $6000; Somersville Road, $5500; Alhambra Valley Road, $6500; Rudgear Road, $15,000; Cherry Lane, $7500; Pleasant Hill Road, $10,000; El Toyonal, $7000.

Miner Road, $7000; Risdon Road, $10,000.

Work has not been started on the following projects:

Moraga Highway and San Pablo Dam Road, $133,000; St. Mary's Road and Pinehurst, $35,000; Pleasant Hill Road and Bypass, $5400; Ygnacio Valley Road, $13,000.

Brook Street, $7500; Moraga Road, $8000; Willow Pass Road, $5000.

Speeding, Turning Cause 7 Injuries In Central County

The California Highway Patrol pointed out this week that high speeds and improper turning caused seven persons to be treated for injuries following auto crashes over the weekend.

Last Friday on Stone Valley Road, Herbert E. Pembroke, 189 Oak Road, Alamo, missed a curve near Orinda and was taken to a private physician by a friend. The Highway Patrol noted he was cited for speeding.

CHARGED WITH speeding by the Highway Patrol Saturday evening was William Smith, Route 1, Ygnacio Valley, who turned his car over on Highway 40 near Carquinez Bridge. Injured was Carl Widing, Selby, who was thrown 105 feet from the car, according to officers' reports.

Sunday afternoon, Clifford Lowe, 40 Blade Way, Walnut Creek, was cited for speeding by the CHP when he rammed into the rear of a car driven by Priscilla Myers, 714 Las Palos Drive, Lafayette, on Lombardy Lane near Minor Road in Orinda.

Lowe told patrolmen both cars were headed for the same meeting but when another car in the party passed, he failed to see Miss Myers slow down.

LYNN TURMAN, 1820 Glenhaven Drive, Walnut Creek, was treated by a physician.

In another Friday accident, a car driven by Charles Wellington Willert, 2393 Warren Road, Walnut Creek, was hit by a tractor-trailer driven by John Ellison of Brentwood on Highway 21 near Hillgrade Avenue.

Taken to Kaiser Hospital by ambulance were Willert, David Schatz, 1040 Scotts Lane; Gary Silveira, 64 Carmelo Road; John Silveira, 34 Via Los Ninos, all Walnut Creek.

Willert told patrolmen he had pulled off the road after he missed a right turn and failed to see the truck coming as he pulled back on the highway. The CHP report stated he was cited for improper turning.

Dental Group Will Tour Area Homes

The Women's Auxiliary of the East Bay Dental Societies, with Mrs. Hugh D. Bishop, of Berkeley, are planning a House and Garden Tour and also an Arts and Crafts and Talent Show September 21.

The proceeds to be used for dental student loan funds and scholarships.

The committee includes Mesdames Roscoe H. DeWitt of Oakland, president; Calvin N. Gold, Orinda, arrangements; Ronald Light, Lafayette, prizes and entertainment; Jack Abbott, Walnut Creek, and William C. Freitas, Oakland, publicity.

The tour will include the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ottmar Breiling, 6118 Ocean View, Oakland.

Another home on display will be that of Dr. and Mrs. James Wasley of 95 Via Floreada, Orinda. It is of contemporary modern architecture. The flower arrangements will be by Mrs. Walter Cole.

ARTS AND crafts displays at this home will be by doctors and their families.

Dr. and Mrs. Ray Herman's early American home at 640 Glenside, Lafayette, will show Mrs. Herman's table setting of milk glass.

THE FLOWER arrangements will be by Mrs. Robert Burley.

The rambling ranch style home of Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Bornholdt of 81 Crest Estates Drive, Walnut Creek, will conclude the tour.

Swmiing and diving will also be featured at this home.

Among the participants will be Richard Bornholdt, son of Dr. and Mrs. Irwin Bornholdt, and Alison Hanford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Hanford.

THE HOST AND hostesses will be Dr. and Mrs. Roscoe H. DeWitt, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Covell and Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Sheeran. The flower arrangements will be by Mrs. Donald Priewe.

'Dress Up Day' Tomorrow For United Crusade Drive

In every town and city throughout Contra Costa "Dress Up Day" will be observed tomorrow when posters, push-pulls, spectacular signs and other promotional material will forerun kickoff day set for Monday when the 1958 United Crusade Campaign officially begins, Hal Cheney, county public relations chairman, announced today.

Four-year-old Alexandra Varakin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Varakin of San Francisco, is this year's United Crusade's new bright yellow campaign poster girl, Cheney said.

As poster girl, Sasha—as she is fondly called — represents thousands of Bay Area children who benefit from United Crusade services to families, children and youth.

Crusade serves healthy, well-loved youngsters like Sasha—who attends the Community Children's Nursery—also for children who are sick or handicapped or who have no hames.

"In fact the Crusade helps all ages and all conditions—from babies to oldsters, troubled people and happy people, sick or well," Cheney pointed out.

Colorful strips reading "Push for United Crusade" and "Pull for United Crusade" will be on all swinging doors of banks, shops and office buildings. Spectacular posters 12 feet long will dress up many business offices carrying to the public's attention the drive and this year's slogan of "Pledge Your Fair Share of Happiness."

Film on Epilepsy Will Be Shown

The newest film on epilepsy, "The Dark Wave," is to have a series of showings in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties under the sponsorship of the Contra Costa Alameda Epilepsy League during the week of September 22.

This 25 minute film was produced in technicolor by Twentieth Century Fox, using professional actors such as Charles Bickford and under the technical direction of Dr. Leon Oetinger, prominent Los Angeles neurologist, who is a a recognized authority on epilepsy.

A showing will be held September 26 at the Williams Elementary School, Concord.

County Gets $143,000 in Gas Funds

State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood today reported that highway users taxes totaling $27,873,161 were apportioned in August for California counties, cities and the State Highway Fund for expenditure on highways.

Highway users taxes received in July were apportioned in August as follows: Counties, $6,876,460; State Highway Fund for distribution to cities, $2,687,552; and State Highway Fund for expenditure on highways, $18,309,149.

Contra Costa County's share amounted to $145,395.61, Kirkwood said.

The total apportionment showed an increase of $3,323,185, or 13.54 per cent, over the preceding month, and an increase of $335,393, or 1.22 per cent, over the amount distributed for the same period last year.

Sources of the latest distribution were: Net gasoline tax, $25,790,898; use (diesel) fuel tax, $1,440,790; transfer from Motor Vehicle Transportation Tax Fund, $510,495; and miscellaneous, $130,978.

Gross gasoline taxes collected in July totaled $27,467,083, an increase of $2,029(879, or 7.98 per cent, over collections for the preceding month, and an increase of $897,375, or 3.8 per cent, over collections for the same month last year.

In determining the net gasoline tax for distribution, these deductions were made: Refunds for non-highway users, $1,640,874; administrative expenses, $6,144; and a reserve of $29,167 for apportionment of unrefunded tax on aviation gasoline.

Refunds paid during July represented an increase of $72,312, or 4.61 per cent, over the preceding month.

Use fuel tax collections for July totaled $1,440,790—an increase of $383,481, or 36.27 per cent over collections for the preceding month, and an increase of $67,423, or 4.91 per cent, over collections for the same month last year.

Go To Church Sunday

Congregational

"Christian Commitment" will be Rev. Chauncey Blossom's sermon topic at the three services Sunday morning at 9, 10 and 11 o'clock in the Orinda Community Church. Mario Guarneri will play "Trumpet Voluntary" by Purcell at the early service. The Chancel Choir will sing "Laudamus" by Owen-Protheroe at the later services.

Church school for three-year-olds through the 8th grade will be held at 9, 10 and 11 a.m.; infant care at 9 and 11. Senior High Youth Forum will meet in the Livingstone Room at 11.

Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at the church at 7 p.m. "Narcotics" will be the topic presented by the guest speaker.

The Women's Bible Class will meet at the church Tuesday morning at 10 and on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 under the leadership of Rev. Muriel James.

Junior High parents will meet in the Livingstone Room Tuesday, 7:30 p.m.

The Church Council will meet in the Livingstone Room Wednesday, 8 p.m. The Christian Education Staff Conference will be held Wednesday, 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Information Class will be held in the Livingstone Room Thursday, 8 p.m. Reception of new members will be on the 28th.

A pool-side "Hoolaulea" will be given at the John Dorr's, Friday the 26th, 7 p.m., under the auspices of the Women's Guild.

Episcopal

The Feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist, will be observed on Sunday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda, with the Rev. Albert Lucas, rector, officiating at services of Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and morning prayer at 9:15 a.m. and 11 a.m.

The Rev. Andrew Daughters, assistant rector, will deliver the sermon at the morning prayer services, marking the eighth anniversary of his ordination to the diaconate. James Buxton will serve as lay reader at the 11 o'clock service.

Church school for kindergarten through 8th grade will meet during the Family Worship service at 9:15, and the junior choir will assist the congregation with the musical portions of the service.

At the 11 o'clock service the senior choir will sing "Jesu, Lamb of God, Redeemer," by Mozart as an offertory anthem under the direction of Dr. Lawrence Moe, interim choirmaster and organist.

Church school sessions for three-year-olds through 5th grade will be held during this service, and nursery care for pre-school children will be available in the basement of the rectory.

On Tuesday at 10 a.m. the Special Finance Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Russell Gilwee, 41 La Cuesta Road, and at 8 p.m. church school teachers will meet in Hill Memorial Hall.

The regular mid-week service of Holy Communion will be held on Wednesday at 10 a.m. Nursery care is available during this service.

The Seabury (couples) Club will initiate its fall program on Friday with a "Bring Your Own Steak" barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mouser, 8 El Caminito, at 7 p.m. Those wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Mouser at CL 4-2732 or Mrs. Roger Olson, CL 4-4076, by Tuesday.

Supplementary courses for dinner will be provided by the committee, of which Mr. and Mrs. Mouser are chairmen, and which consist of Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Shutt, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds.

The rector has announced fall confirmation classes which will start for seventh and eighth graders on Monday, Sept. 29, at 4 p.m., for adults on Wednesday, October 1, a 8 p.m., and for high school students on Saturday, October 4, at 10 a.m.

Baptist

"The Tree of Life" will be the sermon topic of Rev. Alan Southwell, the pastor of the newly organized American Baptist Church in the Moraga Valley. The fellowship is temporarily meeting in the Carroll Ranch.

Church Sunday School meets at 9:45 for all ages. All classes will meet together first to hear a children's story entitled "Moonstruck" starring "Hoo-Hoo Owl" and "Billy Whippoorwill."

Worship Service begins at 11. There is a nursery provided during both Sunday School and Worship service.

There will be a neighborhood fellowship potluck dinner at 271 Rheem Boulevard in Moraga, on Friday evening September 26 at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome.

Methodist

Sunday—Church School for all age groups. Worship services are held at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. with the Rev. Henry Page White preaching on the sermon topic "Taking one's Religion Seriously." The Methodist Youth Fellowship will have their regular meeting at 7 p.m. The Wesley Fellowship, for those between the ages of 18 and 23, will be held at the Walnut Creek Methodist Church at 8 p.m.

Monday—All commissions will meet at the church at 8 p.m.

Tuesday—The Bible Study class will meet at the home of Mrs. T. Erwin at 10 a.m. Circle 2 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. B. Spurlock, 1206 Monticello Road, Lafayette.

Wednesday—The Prayer Group will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Inman-Kane at 2 p.m.

Thursday—At 12:30 p.m. the following circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet as follows: Circle 1, Mrs. G. Shoptaugh, 853 Colano Drive, Lafayette; Circle , Mrs. C. F. White, 3783 Sundale Road, Lafayette. The High School Youth Choir will meet at 7 p.m. for rehearsal, and the Senior Choir at 8 p.m.

Friday — Goodwill Rummage Day — Anyone interested please bring clothing and miscellaneous items to the church for pickup by Goodwill Industries. Goodwill bags are available at the church.

Saturday—Church Work Day at 9 a.m. for working at the church. Second Milers will meet at 6 p.m. for a barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall. The Couplers and the Buck and Dears to meet at the church at 7 p.m. for a hayride and barbecue.

Baptist

"Be-Attitudes" will be Rev. Bruce H. Parkers sermon topic at the 11 a.m. worship service of the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette, which will be meeting in the Veterans Memorial Building in Lafayette.

Sunday school commences at 9:45 a.m. under the supervision of Robert Jordan. There are interesting classes for all ages, from cradle roll to adult. Junior Church and a nursery are provided during the 11 a.m. service and available for family use.

Roger Moore will conduct the Baptist Youth Fellowship service at 6:45 p.m. Teen agers are urged to attend. The Friday night fellowship activity is announced during this period. 7:30 p.m. marks the evening service time. There will be singing of the old songs, testimonies and a short message, "Things to Buy" by the pastor.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Bible study and prayer meeting will convene in Lafayette.

Tonight Rev. Parker will be heard on station KWBR (Valley Church of the Air).

Membership Drive Started

The first annual membership drive for the recently formed Parents Club of the Orinda Union School began this week and will continue through next week. Letters to parents have been sent home with children announcing the anticipated 100 per cent goal for family memberships. A progressive chart will be displayed in the front hall of the school showing the daily record for the various classrooms. The students in each room to obtain the 100 per cent goal will be awarded pencils with "Orinda Union School" engraved on them.

Dues of $1 per family may be sent to school with students or brought to the school office. Membership chairman this semester is Mrs. Jack Gilbert.

Christian Science

The truth that man made in the spiritual image and likeness of God has dominion over sin, sickness, and limitation will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Street. Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

John's account of the walking on the sea by Christ Jesus (John 6: 16-21) is included in the Scriptural selections to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares: "In proportion as matter loses to human sense all entity as man, in that proportion does man become its master. He enters into a diviner sense of the facts, and comprehends the theology of Jesus as demonstrated in healing the sick, raising the dead, and walking over the wave" (369:5-10).

The Golden Text is from Leviticus: "Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the Lord your God" (19-4).

Lutheran

"Rainbows Out of Tears" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette. Services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m., and a nursery is provided during the 11 a.m. service.

Sunday School classes meet at 9:30 a.m. for pre-school through Adult Bible Class, and at 11 a.m. for pre-school through grade six.

Sunday evening at 6 p.m. the high school group will have a supper meeting at the church.

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. the Sunday School teachers will meet.

Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. the Mid-Week Bible Study will meet.

Parents to Meet With Instructors

Room meetings for Glorietta School are being held during the next two weeks. They afford each parent a chance to meet his child's teacher and his classmates' parents and to discuss with the teacher her plans for the class during the coming year.

Parents are asked to bring their one dollar per family dues for the Parents Club to the room meeting. This year, with the individual school clubs in existence, these dues for Glorietta will be spent at Glorietta.

The room meeting schedule is as follows:

September 23, kindergarten, Miss Pierson, 2:30 p.m.; September 24, kindergarten, Mrs. Riesenberg, 2:30 p.m.; September 25, first grade, Mrs. Raiden, 10 a.m., Miss Ellerman, 1 p.m.; September 26, first grade, Mrs. Nicolaysen, 1 p.m.; September 30, second grade, Mrs. Slusser, 10 a.m., Mrs. Ray, 1 p.m.

October 1, second and third grades, Mrs. Cutler, 2:30 p.m.; October 2, third grade, Mrs. Davis, 10 a.m., Mrs. Siefker, 1 p.m.; October 6, fifth grade, Miss Stadt, and Miss Meek, 7:30 p.m.; October 7, sixth grade, Mr. Latner and Mrs. Quarterman, 7:30 p.m.; October 8, fourth grade, Mrs. Callow, Mr. Woltz and Miss Larsen, 2:30 p.m.

The room meetings will all be held in the all-purpose room at Glorietta.

Orinda Garden Club Will Meet

Orinda Garden Club's first fall meeting will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Roger Stark on Vista Del Mar in Orinda. Mrs. J. H. Schwarck will give a review of the purposes and the by-laws of the club. There will be a discussion of programs scheduled for fall. A picnic barbecue will be served after the meeting.

Mrs. Roger Stark will preside as the new president. Those who will serve on her board during the coming year are Mrs. J. H. Schwarck, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Leiland Nelson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Norman Tuttle, recording secretary; Mrs. W. H. Mordy, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth St. Clair, publicity and historian.

The committee chairmen appointed are Mrs. W. H. Mordy, finance; Mrs. Edward Rogers, membership; Mrs. Paul Pollaczek, conservation; Mrs. Ben Johnson, flower arrangements; Mrs. John Ferri, hospitality; Mrs. William Denault and Mrs. Victor Cranston, telephone; Mrs. Woodburn K. Lamb, library; Mrs. Ridgely Greathouse, plant and flower drawings, and Mrs. Perc Brown, roster.

Best Buy in Food ...Always!

Like to save money on your food bill? Sure...everybody does!

And MILK does it!

Penny for penny, there's no food that gives you so much body-building, energy-rich nutrition as nature's "perfect food"...Milk.

Milk has always been your best food buy—but, today, it's an even better buy. While other food prices climbed, Milk prices lagged far behind. In fact, if Milk prices had kept up with other food prices during the last few years, it would cost you 42¢ a quart right now...instead of just about half that much!

So, buy the big food bargain—Milk! It's economical. It's nutritious. And, it's the best-tasting, most refreshing treat in the world.

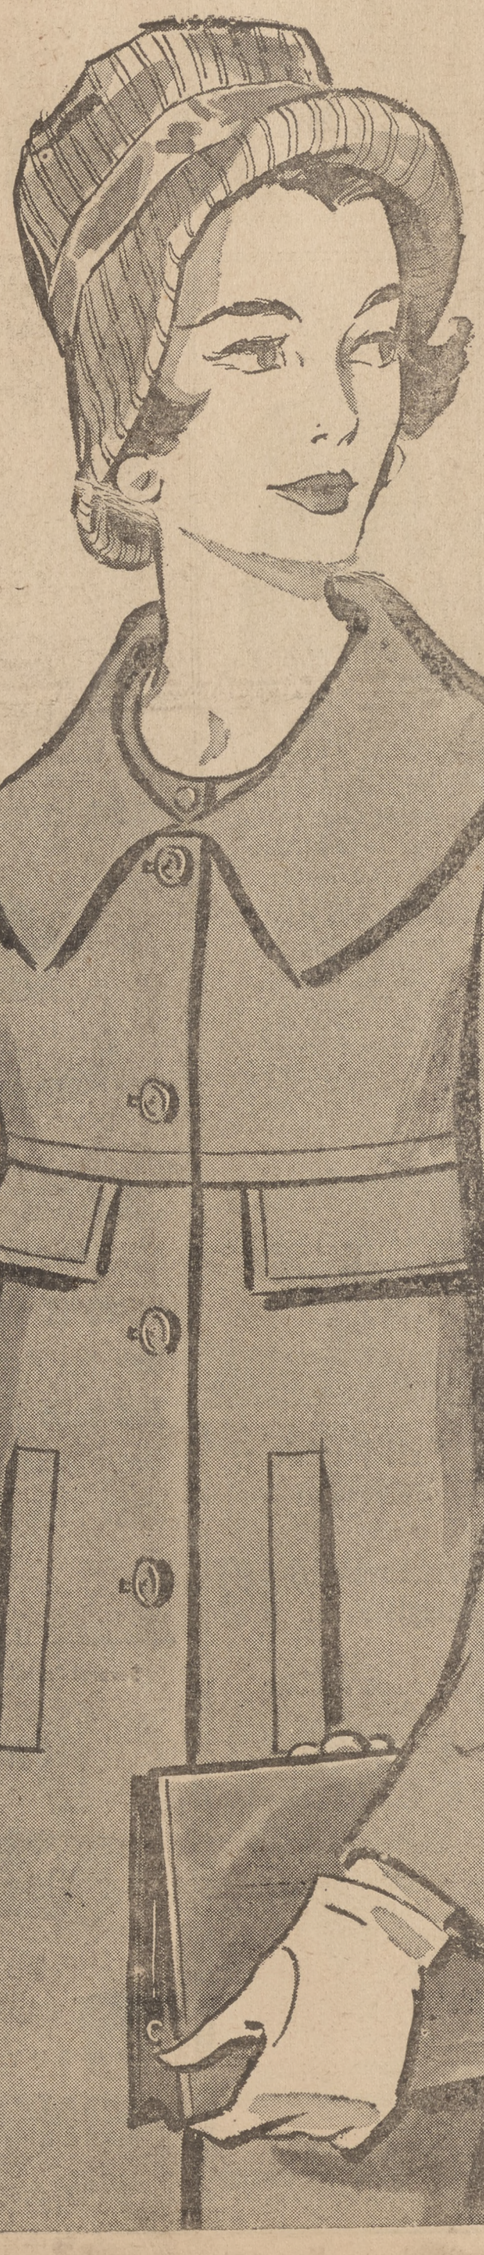
Fall Fashions

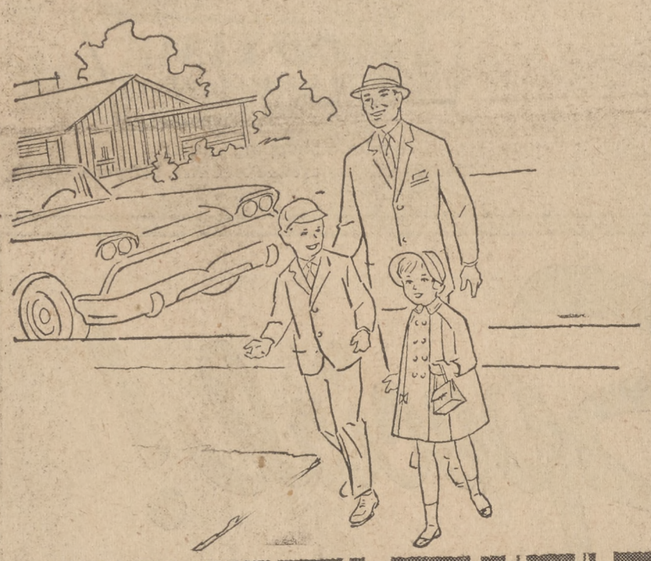
...a family affair

Crisp and colorful, fall comes in . . and each day seems fresh and full of zest. All the family find new things to do . . . parties, school, shopping, sports, more indoor living and entertaining. To fit your fall way of life, new fashions are here . . . for you, your family and home. Get ready to enjoy autumn more . . . with new fashions for all.

VIRGINIA BLODGETT of Joseph Magnin's sparkles in this royal blue jersey with satin trim by Rembrandt. A royal blue beaver hat, blue gloves and blue hose and blue leather shoes give perfect harmony. The bag of blue and silver and white costume jewelry add the perfect finishing touch.

TAKING A LONG LOOK at the long line, Miss Jeannie Fredman comes up in the relaxed look of this fall's new sweater separates. Outfitted at the Emporium of Lafayette, she has selected a softly-ribbed "Rib-a-tam" skirt by "Tami" and made-to-match marvelously soft cardigan of "Darlene's" lambswool "Minklm."





MISSES JO ANN DAVISON of Orinda School, and Joyce Bailey of Miramonte, model fall fashions for the Orinda school girl from Ogdens of Orinda. Jo Anne is wearing a Trude cotton flannel quilted plaid jumper and a Garland lambswool turtleneck sweater with push-up sleeves from the Pre-Teen Shop. Joyce models "Hi" fashion separates. The skirt is reversible wool. The sweater, of Talbott's taralon, is completely machine washable and dryable.

WONDERFUL PENDLETON wool outfits Mrs. Barbara Benatar for cool autumn days. Her long-sleeve bulky knit pull-over of "Jester Squares" is handsome and color-coordinated to its Pendleton skirt. Available at Fiesta Fashions in Lafayette.

TO POINT UP FALL fashions a-foot Suttons of Lafayette is showing one of 23 styles of their new line of "Cover Girl" flats. Suttons now has the most complete line of these most covetted, high fashion flats in Contra Costa County.

Alumnae Club Holds Meeting

The Stanley Allen home on Estates Drive in Orinda was the scene of the Mt. Diablo Area Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Club's opening event of the fall season. Husbands of the members were guests for the pot luck supper and evening of festivities.

It proved to be a delightful evening to toast the end of summer and the beginning of the fall activities under the leadership of Mrs. Theodore P. Lake and her staff of newly appointed officers. Mrs. Adrien Gensoul, vice-president; Mrs. Frederic Sawyer, secretary, and Mrs. James Pangburn, treasurer.

The news highlight of the evening was the recent appointment of Mrs. Harold Hollister to the office of Province President for the Northern California, Oregon and Nevada area.

Silhouette Choice Great in Empire, Chemise, Trapeze

When it comes to shape, the fall fashion story is short and simple. Hemlines are rising—to just below the knee, in most cases. Silhouettes — and there are many of them — rely on easy, simple lines to create effects that are fresh, feminine and, above all, youthful.

All along the easy line, the basic simplicity of silhouettes is dramatized by interesting colors and fabrics. Greens, red, orange, gold, blue, ultra violet—just about every color is represented. "Fall foliage," "Indian summer" or "harvest" are descriptions given to some of the most important shades.

FABRICS REVEL in surface interest, from the loops and curls of mohair and mohair wools to the raised ribs of faille and the airy puffs of matelasse crepes. Smooth-surfaced fabrics are rich and lustrous, with a look of depth.

While there's a great choice of silhouettes — Empire, chemise, cocoon, blouson, spoon, scythe, bubble, balloon, to mention some of the leaders—they find a common bond in the "free form" or "mobile" look. One of the freshest ways of applying ease to the fall silhouette is through the Empire look.

The true Empire, with an under-bust waistline above a slim, graceful flow of fabric, is rising to fashion prominence, while high-waisted Empire effects are employed for both chemise and trapeze styles.

There's less talk about the chemise as such — and more acceptance of it as an easy and far from sack-like look that promises to be a long-continuing influence on fashion. Now, the chemise meets the sheath and becomes the "straight sheath," fitted at bust and hips, unfitted at the waist.

WHEN THE chemise takes a waistline, it may be high, in Empire fashion, or low — just below the hips or just above the knees. In the latter case, the chemise usually follows the figure, subtly and easily, down to the low-low waistline, and then bursts out in pleats, a trumpet flare or gathered flounce.

Interpretations of the chemise have led to such silhouettes as the scythe, the cocoon and the spoon, with fitted fronts and a bloused or rounded and tapered line in the back.

Three Styles Featured for Fall Coats

The "Big Three" in coat silhouettes this fall are the trapeze, the slim coat with high Empire waist or low chemise flounce, and the over coat, with gathers, drapes or folds in back, tapered to the hem.

Length wise, the almost-full-length or shorter coat gains importance, as part of a "walking suit," or on its own.

WHILE EMPIRE waistlines look newest, in both the trapeze and slim line coats, there are also many low-belted effects. Double-breasted closings are popular, sometimes continuing all the way down the coat.

Big, standaway collars and oversized buttons provide a fresh looking style influence.

Fur linings and trims are more highly favored than ever. They range from raccoon and muskrat to fox, beaver, leopard, mink and sable.

REPRESENTING the newest version of the full swinging coat, the trapeze line is narrow at the top, then flares out from under the arms to a spreading hemline.

Back interest develops in many ways. Among them are panels and panel effects, draped folds, shirring, ballooned contours, scythe rounding and pleats starting from the shoulder line or from a dropped yoke.

Empire effects include high-placed "baby bib" detailing, belts, seams, bands or bows just under the bustline, inverted side pleats that start high at the waist and vest pocket flaps or pockets placed high on an Empire waistline.

COLORS ARE especially exciting. There are many shades of brown and vivid blues, greens, reds and oranges. Other favored hues include lilac and royal purple tones.

Hummingbird Unit Will Hold Luncheon, Show

For their first affair this season, the Hummingbird Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center is planning a smorgasbord luncheon and fashion show to be held at the El Nido Restaurant, Lafayette, October 8.

Cocktails at 12 o'clock, luncheon 1:30 p.m.

Theme of the show will be "Fashions from Petticoat Lane" and fashions displayed will be from Irene Thies and Jo Ann's of Walnut Creek. Fourteen members of the other units of the Therapy Center will act as models.

Chairman is Mrs. Robert Simpson of Walnut Creek, and assisting her are Mesdames William Thompson, co-chairman; Robert Spitzack, in charge of programs; George Conti, raffle; Paul Kilkanny, decorations; Mervyn Ortez, reservations, and Robert Franklin, models.

Commentator for the fashion show will be Mrs. Mary Powers, and music will be by Mrs. Bignani.

Reservations may be made by calling ATlantic 3-3072.

Members of the Hummingbird Unit held two well attended and enjoyable pot luck dinners and swimming parties during the summer at the homes of Mrs. William Evans, Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. Lloyd Lawson, Hawthorne Drive, Walnut Creek, respectively.

Gamma Phi Betas Hear Speaker

Contra Costa alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta and their children held their annual swimming party last month at the Springhill pool in Lafayette.

Invitation was by Mrs. Richard Peters of Springhill Road.

The Gamma Phis will have their first business meeting of the fall season at 8 p.m., Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Ralston May, 457 Florence Drive, Lafayette. Mrs. May, alumnae delegate to the Gamma Phi Beta national convention held in June in Victoria, B.C., will report on the convention and show colored slides of her trip.

All local Gamma Phis are invited to attend the meeting.

Catholic Women Hold 'Kickoff' Party at Koenigs

Concurrent with the opening of football season, Catholic Social Service Auxiliary of Alameda County held its first event of the year—"Fall Kickoff", a cocktail party, in the gardens of the Felix Koenig home in Lafayette on Sunday.

JUST BETWEEN US MEN, new suits for Fall are perfect for a back-to-business appearance. The gentleman on the left is looking his best in a wide wale diagonal weave, while his friend sports a medium gray suit of winter-weight silk. Both are available at Grodins in Walnut Creek.

DIANA OATES WEARS the smart "new look" creation of Diane Rich of California, with a sleek bow at the bottom of the hemline. It is 100 per cent wool, and comes in many new fall shades. The slip-over sweater and cardigan are also by Diane Rich, and are dyed to match colors, imported blend of nylon, angora and lambs wool. The model is wearing high heel sling pumps, which come in red and black patent leather and are leather lined with unbreakable heels.

'New' Shapes In Handbags For Fall Wear

Following the chemise and trapeze silhouettes, or extending into the long, barrel shape, fall handbags are styled on clean simple lines that emphasize the soft, luxurious look of the new leathers.

Decoration, if any, is confined to almost minute touches of gold or gilt at the closing.

THE TRAPEZE and chemise shapes, which are often wafer thin, feature gusseted sides that expand to hold various handbag essentials without bulging out of shape. These are shown in smooth or finely grained leathers for daytime wear, and in smaller versions in silky suedes for after-five.

Because of the conservative styling, handles are back in the picture bigger than ever.

Wide, over-the-arm straps balance the slim, flat handbags and double-strap handbags appear on most of the elongated styles.

EVEN THE envelope bag, shown heretofore without handles, features collapsible handles that disappear into the body of the handbag.

The smaller clutch bag, a perennial favorite, turns up for fall in a wide range of new leather colors to match practically any shade. Some of these have outside pockets held closed by a leather tab and buckle, and others feature a bit of trapunto detailing.

to flatter you!

Flattery goes to your head, when your hair style enhances your best features. Whether you are a "back-to-school" charmer or her Mom, getting set for fall, our capable stylists will "do" your hair . . . to flatter you.

Their Gamma Alpha Chapter has started its rush season, which will include a luncheon at the Jack London Square, Oakland.

Diablo Club Dance Tomorrow

Tomorrow night will mark a high point in the development of the Diablo Country Club as one of the outstanding social centers of Contra Costa County.

For tomorrow night a happy throng will converge on the country club to celebrate its 10th anniversary.

The annual formal dinner will be highlighted by the music of Henry Gallagher.

IN KEEPING with the anniversary date, the theme will be "tin" and the ballroom will be decorated with tin sheeting background for the bandstand, and sprayed silver leaves.

Each table will have 10 candles set in sprayed silver branches surrounded by loose orchids. Each lady will be presented with an orchid lei flown in from Honolulu.

A big anniversary cake will be brought in for President Bailey Justice to cut, following which past presidents will be introduced and honored.

MANY FESTIVE cocktail parties will precede the affair, with one being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dudley Dozier, and another at the home of the Tom Longs of Alamo.

Attending the former will be the James Bos, Larry Moores, Spencer Archers, Kless Moores and Don Whites.

In addition to cocktail parties at the homes of members, many members will be entertaining in their rooms at the chalet of the Diablo Country Club.

General entertainment chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dawson. Chairmen for the anniversary banquet are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Crane.

The committee includes Messrs. and Mesdames William Owsley, Gay L. Kearne, Robert Bell, Gilbert Kufahl and W. C. Helfrinch.

MAKING PUPPETS for children at the Herrick hospital are members of Alpha Omicron Pi. They are, from left, Mrs. Jack Walling, Berkeley; Mrs. Nolton Ashley, Oakland; and Mrs. Phillip Joy and Mrs. Robert Cathcart, both of Orinda. The sorority will hold a benefit for the hospital Saturday with an open house at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Schiuto in Oakland.

Pi Phi Alumnae Meet Wednesday

Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi Sorority from throughout Contra Costa County will gather on Wednesday at 1 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Hugh Miller of Danville.

The charming Miller estate, Corduroy Hills Ranch, will lend its atmosphere of gracious hospitality to the Pi Phi dessert bridge benefit and arrowcraft sale.

This annual event for the Contra Costa alumnae group will give Pi Phis and their friends an opportunity to see the handcraft objects woven or carved in the sorority-sponsored mountain community of Gatlinburg, Tenn.

There beautifully crafted fabrics, table linens, baskets, brooms and carvings are created. These are the items Pi Phis will be showing to their guests at the dessert bridge.

Among those attending will be the officers of the Contra Costa Chapter, Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi: Mrs. R. E. Bernard of Orinda, president, and Mrs. Gale Harris, Lafayette, vice-president; Mrs. Roger H. Downs, Concord, secretary, and Mrs. Arthur E. Kaiser, Lafayette, treasurer.

League to Meet In Lafayette

James H. Anderson, one of the architects who designed Hayward's new Tennyson High School and Hayward's Cherryland High School, now under construction, will speak to the Women's Architectural League of the East Bay on Thursday.

Anderson will speak on his visit to the Brussels Fair and will show slides which he and Mrs. Anderson made on their European trip, this spring.

The league meeting will take place at a smorgasbord luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the El Nido restaurant, 3946 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Diablo Tuesday Forum Tells of First Programs

Mrs. Hubert Prost was hostess for the Board of Directors of the Diablo Tuesday Morning Forum recently at her home on Oak Grove Road.

Preceding luncheon, the members addressed invitations for the three lectures which will compose the Fall Series at the Diablo Country Club.

The first program, to be given September 30 at 10:30 a.m., will be an address entitled "Formula for Living" by psychologist Dr. Evelyn Miller Berger.

Forum directors welcomed three new members to the board, Mrs. Thomas Brighton and Mrs. Arch Campbell of Alamo and Mrs. William Larmer of Lafayette.

Mrs. John Blemer is the new coordinating chairman of the Forum, succeeding Mrs. Howard Flanders who served for the past year.

Mrs. Blemer's executive committee for the new season includes Mrs. Robert Bartlett, Mrs. Stanley Friden, Mrs. William Hale Jr., Mrs. William Denault, Mrs. George Towle and Mrs. Clifton Moore.

The Forum programs are open to the public and anyone interested in the series or in single admission tickets may obtain them in advance from any board member or at the door on the morning of the program.

The ticket includes coffee served at 10 a.m., followed by the program. The program is always completed by noon, but guests may lunch at the country club if they desire, by making reservations a few days in advance, by calling the country club.

Tickets for the fall series of three lectures are $5 each.

Relief Society Sets Fashion Show Next Week

"September Silhouettes" will be the theme of the fashion show sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Ward Relief Society organization of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints September 27, 1:30 p.m., at the chapel, 2369 Overlook Drive, Walnut Creek.

A buffet will follow the show of fashions which will be furnished by the Clothes Horse of Walnut Creek.

Nona Henry is general chairman for the affair, assisted by Ilene Dell-Ergo.

Other charimen are Joanne Rhodes, models; Loretta Wilhelmsen, food; Joy Knight, decorations; Margaret Kaiser, tickets; Margorie Burr, publicity; Bette Evans, commentator.

Shriners To Hold Benefit Party

President Frank Kupper announced that Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children will be the recipients of all profits of the Arabian Nites Fantasy dinner-dance which will be held by the Contra Costa Shrine Club tomorrow night at the Concord Elks Club.

Vice President Jack Brown of Concord, general chairman, urges all attending to bring a canned goods donation for the hospital. Arabian costume or sport wear will be the order of the day.

Concert Planned

Barbara Prall, well known soprano soloist and first grade teacher at Diablo Vista School in Pleasant Hill, will be heard at the Rose Circle benefit musical for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center next Saturday at the Oakland Club, 124 Montecito Avenue, Oakland.

Suburbanettes Plant Fiesta Day Luncheon

The Walnut Creek Suburbanettes will meet in the home of Mrs. John Ransome, 160 La Bolsa Road on Tuesday to complete last minute plans and decorations for the club's Fiesta Day luncheon. Mrs. Arthur McDougall is chairman of the luncheon.

The luncheon, to be held in the garden of the home of club president Mrs. Julius Kuehn, 525 Lakewood Circle, will benefit the Lynn School for Retarded Children in Danville.

Mrs. Weston Irish is in charge of tickets.

At the last board meeting Mrs. Gene Hutchings, 1364 Hermine Court, was named chairman of the nominating committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Ike Stevens, 554 Lakewood Circle, and Mrs. Weston Irish of 440 Summit Road, in the November elections.

Guys and Dolls Dances Begin

The first weekly Guys and Dolls dance party will be held Wednesday night at El Nido. Open to any unmarried man or woman, the group offers an informal opportunity for anyone, single or divorced, to meet one another.

This group which has met with great success in other areas was organized last year locally and is comprised of adult congenial men and women who get together for a pleasant evening of dancing and conversation.

The Maurice Anger Trio, now in its sixth consecutive year of playing for the Tunnel Strip dance set, is booked for the Guys and Dolls Wednesday night series.

All unmarried persons are invited to attend.

The Transit Game Is Not Worth The Candle ...

The board of directors of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District met Tuesday night to prepare an ordinance calling for a $16.9 million bond issue in November.

The purpose of this bond issue would be:

1. Outright purchase of Key System, lock, stock and barrel.

2. Inauguration of some feeder and express bus lines in Central Contra Costa County.

The transit district (and this district is not to be confused with the larger five-county rapid transit district) has had its share of troubles since its formation in the general election in November, 1956.

SAN PABLO, Richmond, portions of El Cerrito and areas along the Carquinez straits have had themselves excluded from the district.

There have been problems over the alignment of the wards, from which directors are elected.

Dissatisfaction has been expressed from several Contra Costa County areas and groups over the proposed service and the cost of the district, including the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

The Sun stated, long ago, its position on the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District. It was apparent from the beginning that the primary reason for the formation of the district was the purchase of Key System.

That has proved to be correct.

This is very good for the communities in Alameda County. Residents there must have some form of public transportation. However, again, we see no reason why the residents of Contra Costa County should pay the bill when it comes to transportation for Alameda County (and some portions of Contra Costa County on the other side of the hill.)

THIS IS NOT to ignore the fact that the transit district has offered this area, should the bond issue be approved in November, a form of transit.

But the transit system they can provide our area in the immediate future is woefully inadequate for our needs. It would benefit the commuter very little, as far as feeder lines are concerned, and not at all as far as commute transportation is concerned.

Greyhound can fulfill the commuter's needs at present better than can the transit district.

We are tempted by the offer of feeder buses in the Orinda-Lafayette-Moraga areas, and Alamo-Walnut Creek, as well as parts of Pleasant Hill.

But the price is exhorbitant.

THEREFORE, WE again state that we are opposed to any bond issue on the part of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District in November.

However, we find ourselves in the position of being included in the district and not liking what we are getting. Of course, we should have never allowed ourselves to be included in the first place.

When the district was formed there was a great deal of confusion in many minds between the five-county district and the Alameda Contra Costa district.

Many residents felt that they were simply voting for rapid transit, others were confused. The net result was inclusion in the district.

What can be done about it? Any area which wishes may be excluded from the transit district through the following procedure.

1. Boundaries defining the area wishing to be excluded must be established.

2. PETITIONS seeking exclusion are circulated in this area. In order to achieve exclusion, the petitions must bear the names of owners of 51 per cent of the assessed valuation.

3. These petitions are then submitted to the board of the transit district, which may or may not grant exclusion.

If the board does not exclude the area, the petitions may be taken to the courts.

We are not bound to support this district. We recommend that investigation of ways to get out of this mess be continued.

It's More Important Now...

This year, more than ever, it is going to be important that each one of us contribute to the United Crusade.

Tuesday the kickoff takes place in each community in the county, and within the next month you will be approached by a friend or neighbor at either your home or place of business and a contribution will be asked.

The United Crusade provides funds for some 57 health, welfare and youth serving agencies throughout the county at a minimum cost to the contributors.

FOR THE FIRST time the Red Cross is included in the United Crusade drive, and there will be no separate Red Cross drive this year, as there has been in the past.

When you give on contribution to the United Crusade, you automatically support all 57 agencies, including such well known groups as the Diablo Valley YMCA, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Girl Scouts The Salvation Army and the Volunteer Bureau.

You also contribute to such national groups as the Cerebral Palsy Society and the Mental Health Society, whose collected funds are spent locally.

It is almost an impossible task to assess the work done by youth groups alone in our area—such groups as the Boy and Girl Scouts and the YMCA. If you have any youngsters in your home, you know how active these groups are, and what they can do for the children.

THESE GROUPS need our support, just as our own children do. Therefore it is urgent that you contribute and contribute generously to the United Crusade.

The county wide goal is $502,792, a 16 per cent increase over the amount raised last year. Raising this amount is vital if our communities wish to continue meeting the minimum cost of agency services.

The United Crusade merits our earnest consideration and generous contribution. We urge you to pledge your fair share of happiness.

Down with Right to Work! Right NOT to Work Counts

Heaven help the working girl! And working boy.

In just a few weeks working girls and boys will trudge to the polls to cast their ballots.

PERHAPS IT WILL be raining. November is sometimes a very wet month.

The poor working girls will splash through puddles with their hair straight and dripping. Unless, of course, they happen to be possessed of a waterproof bandana to protect the working girls' tresses.

Tired after a day of plodding away at the old job, they'll dispiritedly grasp their ballots and wetly make their way into the voting booths.

Wearily they'll stamp their little marks in the boxes of their preferences.

Until—they hit the Right to Work measure.

AND THEN STEAM will rise from voting booths in each precinct.

After a day of hard work, who wants to vote for the right to do so?

Any politician with imagination would jump on the bandwagon for a Right Not to Work bill.

The polls would be mobbed by eager working girls and boys stampeding their ways to the booths to cast a pro vote for such an issue.

EVEN IF FLOOD conditions prevailed, workers would paddle kayaks to the polls to vote. Each would carry his own waterproof ink pad in his teeth, too.

If only we had a politician with the daring and imagination to advocate the Right Not to Work bill!

Run of the mill candidates are such eager beavers. We must get more industry here. More workers. And the right to work.

MAYBE IN SOME future election a giant among politicians will come forth and take a bold stand in support of a Right Not to Work law.

Meanwhile, all that we can do is to watch the steam ascend from the booths this year.

Although this election day may not be a rainy one at all.

Health Group Attends Meeting

Mrs. Catherine Long, executive director, and delegate of the Central Contra Costa Medical Health Association attended the annual meeting of the California Association for Mental Health.

It was held at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, September 5 and 6.

The official delegates were Mrs. Hans Wendel and Dr. Yoshiyi Togasaki, Lafayette; Mrs. John Reich and Frederick C. Kracke, Walnut Creek, and Dr. Harold W. Kaar, Martinez.

SATURDAY'S business and discussion sessions were preceded Friday evening by a banquet at which the national association president, the Hon. Luther A. Alverson spoke.

Prior to the state meetings, the western region of the national association held a two day conference of speakers and workshops.

From the local group were Mrs. Hans Wendel, Lafayette; Dr. Harold W. Kaar and Mrs. Maxine Johnson, Martinez; Mrs. Joseph Romeo, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. W. O. Davis and Mrs. Catherine Long, Concord.

Of particular interest to Contra Costa citizens interested in community mental health were the comments made by Dr. Philip L. Sirotkin on Thursday morning.

HE REPORTED on a survey made on the public care of the mentally ill in the west, pointing out that in spite of the overcrowding of our mental hospitals and the critical shortage of professional personnel, the last two years have seen a reversal of the long standing growth of our mental hospital population.

This is the more dramatic when viewed against the rapid growth of the general population in the western states.

The change is due to increased appropriations which have made possible actual treatment of more patients.

National recognition that mental illnesses can be cured is spurring citizen interest in adequate research, treatment facilities and community services to meet the challenge of the nation's number one health problem.

Calling for "brains, not bricks," Dr. Sirotkin stressed the urgent need for more trained professional personnel, our most critical shortage to be overcome if we are to give the mentally ill the fighting chance to get well that is rightfully theirs. He commended the associations for their role in education for greater public understanding of mental illness and support of needed legislation.

The following committee chairmen have been appointed to serve during 1958-59: Planning, Ed Tonningsen; professional advisory, Wilson Yandell, M.D.; education, Victor Guthrie; volunteers, Mrs. Thomas Hodgson; membership, Mrs. Edward Losh; community services, Yoshiyi Togasaki, M.D.

BOND ISSUE

Dear Editor:

Our attention has been called to the editorial ... you ran in your issue of Aug. 29, making favorable comment on the proposed bond issues which the board has decided to place on the November ballot.

Thank you very much for the editorial.

I WANT YOU to know that in adopting the resolutions providing for submitting the issues, the board has made one modification, namely an increase in the maximum interest rate from 3¼ to 3½ per cent. Because of the present state of the bond market this is considered advisable since even at 3½ per cent the issue of $1,400,000 for taking up options on presently leased buildings would effect a saving of $120,000.

It is customary to show the legal maximum of 5 per cent in submitting such bond issues, but I believe in the instant case the county should not be authorized to arrange the loan at this time if the interest charges will exceed 3½ per cent.

A FEW WEEKS ago when I talked to the bond department of the Bank of America in San Francisco they expressed the opinion that with our country's AA rating, which is as high as that of any political subdivision in the state, we should be able to get money at around 3 per cent.

I would not, of course, attempt to predict what interest rates will be next winter and, with the present bond market performance one is not justified in being too optimistic.

HOWEVER, WITH the limit placed by the electorate, I think there is no risk involved to the taxpayers in approving the proposed issues, while on the other hand I know that there would be a substantial interest saving in one case and probably a very substantial saving of occupancy costs in the other. We hope to make clear during the time intervening before the election how the county arrived at its estimate of the announced requirements of 36,000 square feet of office space.

D. M. TEETER
County Administrator

CRISIS

Dear Editor:

You are to be congratulated for breaking The Sun's editorial policy in order to comment on the Formosa crisis. Your action indicates the need for all your readers to interrupt their preoccupation with local interests.

Our international affairs are not only gravely serious, but they even threaten our daily life, whether we like it or not.

We've let our government pile up a series of mistakes into an impossible international position. Now we must face the embarrassing facts.

THE HONOR of our country is not served by an unrealistic attitude toward the Chinese nations. We haven't the right to subject our children, ourselves, and all the world to frightful danger merely to "save face."

If we persist in "brinksmanship" we can't avoid a share of blame for the inevitable disastrous consequences. If we are to stand resolute against Communist threats (as we certainly must), let's stand on the firm ground of realistic policies intelligently conceived.

What must be done in the present crisis? We must draw the line down the middle of the Formosa Strait, and repeat our intention to keep peace in the area for both Chinese nations to hear.

THE WORLD cannot tolerate invasion of Formosa by Red China or the mainland by Chang Kai-Shek. Since Quemoy and Matsu are obviously part of the mainland, immediate evacuation by Nationalist forces is indicated.

The time has come for every American to bestir himself and take part in the democratic process. We must decide what our policy should be and then tell our leaders about it. We must insist to the resident, State Department, and Congress that we want a mature foreign policy based on recognition of facts, not dreams.

GIBSON M. GRAY, JR.

DRUNK DRIVERS

DEAR EDITOR:

I wonder when the courts are going to wake up and do something about drunken drivers? A lot of people feel that they are just as felonious as a person waving a six shooter.

I am sure that a person shooting a gun would soon be put in jail, yet a drunken driver gets a small fine. Take the case of Lindsey Crosby; an accident case and all he got was $250 fine.

Maybe 30 days in jail would make him think. A person of his wealth thinks nothing of the money and may do it again. I wonder what you and other readers think about this subject?

Are We Pushing Our Children Too Hard?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Do we expect too much of our children?

Eleanor and I were talking about this the other day and it is a relevant subject this week. School has started. The kids, big and little, suddenly swing from an easy, free summer schedule to—bango—a tight, deadline schedule of activities.

Let's look at Janet's schedule for a minute. Up early to catch the bus by 8 every day. Sunday school on Sunday. Modern dancing Saturday morning. Piano lesson on Monday and practice daily. Brownies on Wednesday. After-school recreation play on other days, if she wants.

How about art class?

We received a call. "Do Janet and Dan want to enroll in art lessons after school?"

Both enjoy art. Since they are our kids, they are, of course, very good at it and "should be given all the advantages." It is a co-op art group with very little cost.

Eleanor asked the kids. They decided not to—since there is so much to do already.

Our kids are wiser than we.

A year ago we finally figured that Mark was going into Boy Scouts because I wanted him to. He had had three years of Cubs. He had been developing other interests—primarily active and spectator sports. The other boys in the neighborhood were NOT joining Boy Scouts. But Mark knew how I felt about scouting. He never said a word; as a Webelo he started attending scout meetings and began his tests.

I talked to him one day. He was a happy and a much-relieved young boy when he learned that he "didn't have to become a scout to please me."

(Needless to say, it was wife Eleanor who first realized all this.)

How about these?

Yes, we are pushing our kids too hard. In our wonderful community, splendid youth programs are offered. New ones are being created. Youth theater, youth concerts, art, dance, music, language and other lessons, summer school programs, athletic leagues, youth auto racing, junior museum, all the youth outdoor groups, church groups, school groups, dance assemblies, traffic patrols, work programs, etc, etc.

Let me make this point very clear: I am not criticizing the sponsors or these programs. No, they are doing a wonderful job of offering your family and mine many grand activities. These are necessary. Many people, at personal and financial sacrifice, make these opportunities available. If it were not so, Janet could not take modern dance or go to Brownies. My hat is off to all these groups.

What should we do?

But as parents, let us help our children be selective. Let's don't "make" them do too much. Let's not push them too hard.

I hope I don't sound like a child psychologist—because I am not in least qualified to offer advice. I have read no books on the subject. I have not talked to experts or teachers.

I simply think we push our kids—and that we push ourselves too hard along the same lines.

What do you think?

Transit District Waives Appeal on Court Decision

Directors of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District voted September 11 to waive any appeal on a recent court decision which ruled the cities of Richmond and San Pablo were illegally included in the district.

The directors also voted to exclude from the district portions of northern Contra Costa County because residents of the area cannot be economically served by district transit operations.

In deciding not to appeal the court decision, the board held that the issues of the forthcoming November bond election of $16,900,000 should be clear-cut and that the outcome of the election should not be clouded by any litigation that might be pending.

Supporting the waiver, Director Clair MacLeod said:

"We owe a broader duty and obligation to the great territory of the district that will be affected by our proposed plans for improved and expanded service, and not to the fraction of the area that apparently does not want to be served."

Robert K. Barber, president, observed that there was no question that each director was dissatisfied with the outcome of the suit.

"But we cannot allow this to cloud the entire bond issue for the rest of the district by pursuing further litigation that already has been decided by a judge."

Director J. Howard Arnold cast the lone dissenting vote. He said that the "obvious wrong" of the court's decision should not be allowed to go uncorrected.

A report to the board on how the court decision will affect future transit planning of the district will be rendered by John R. Worthington, general manager, at a regular meeting of the board Tuesday.

Worthington indicated some few changes in planning will be required, but that the decision will have little appreciable effect on on the district's transit program.

Judge Thomas Keating of Marin County Superior Court ruled that Richmond and San Pablo were illegally included by the fact that absentee ballots for the two cities were improperly canvassed by the Alameda County Board of Supervisors following the November, 1956, election that created the district.

The northern Contra Costa area that was excluded comprises about 50 square miles of sparsely settled ranch land as well as heavy industrial installations along Carquinez Straits.

The resolution adopted by the board authorizing the withdrawal stated, in part, that the area "would not benefit in any manner" by remaining in the district, and that the "best interests" of the district would be served if the area were excluded.

Mosquito District Warns County of Fly Infestation

Citizens of Central Contra Costa County were warned today by the Mosquito Abatement District that the first early rains would be followed by a heavy infestation of flies, unless all citizens take measures to prevent a fly plague.

The flies will be caused by moist organic matter which had previously been dry and not conducive to fly propagation.

The district emphasizes that moist organic material produces flies, but dry material does not. Any manure or vegetable waste of any nature which has been piled or has accumulated to depths of two inches or so should be spread thinly before the rains so it will dry rapidly following early showers.

In addition to other fly sources, the large quantities of lawn clippings which have accumulated in back yards, and especially that which has been dumped indiscriminately at various places, will surely produce many flies unless it is scattered thinly or otherwise properly disposed of, the district warned.

Trouble Makers Are Good

BY NORMAN COLBY

Future hospital patients — which most Contra Costans are — have heard about an authoritative report submitted to the California Medical Association. Among other things, it re-defines the "good" hospital patient.

The report, signed by Dr. Richard Blum, a CMA consulting psychologist, says that its objective ". . . calls for the patient to be more trouble in the hospital . . ."

By listing those things which the typical patient is lacking in most hospitals (even the best ones), it impliedly suggests that the "good" patient is one who demands that his clothes, pin money and jewelry remain in his possession, that his privacy extend to denial of doctors and nurses' right to apply prescribed treatments, and that he be allowed to ignore his involvement in the "Administrative scheduling of activities."

The report implies the "good" patient also should demand that he be informed of all the details, including his bloodcount, temperature, doctor's conjectures about his case — but it leaves open the question whether the doctors should give him a course on how to understand all these matters.

After listing many "impositions" practiced by hospitals on their patients, the report recommended a public information program which ". . . calls for eradication of the compliant, undemanding patient so familiar in the hospital . . . every patient bears responsibility for seeing that he gets good health care . . ."

Referring to "bad" patients, the report states, that they ". . . had little to say about the hospital or their experiences. On direct questioning they expressed satisfaction, but added little else. Most were relatively uncommunicative . . ."

This seems to displease the researchers.

Many of the statements are made by Blum's colleagues, who refer to their "rest home" experiences. But the tone of the report, Blum (no relation to Contra Costa County's health officer) confirms, directs the criticism to all hospitals.

The moral: There are no "good" hospitals. The only "good" patients are troublemakers.

This all reminds me of my own hospital experience in the Army. I arrived with my lungs loaded with goop and a case of acute bronchitis. They threw me into the sack (blessed rest!) and started giving me penicillin.

The doctors were overworked. The nurses were overworked. They did their darndest, and they did a good job. When I was well enough, they sent me on my way. I assume that civilian hospitals are subjected to many of the same pressures as are military hospitals.

If the report refers to rest homes for elderly people, that's fine. Probably a little "troublemaking" would be a good idea, there.

If the report, wherever directed, casts its main reflection on the modern emergency and recuperation hospital, that's another horse..

A patient wants to feel like a patient. He knows he is not going to win any civic endeavor awards while he's inside. He wants consideration. He expects that there will be a few changes from his usual routine. After all, he's sick enough to be in a hospital, isn't he?

Essay Hopefuls Urged To Visit Homes On Display

Women who are interested in participating in the essay contest, being sponsored by the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County on "What I Want in My New Home," were urged today to view the homes presently being displayed during National Home Week.

The winner of the contest is to have an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., to attend the "1958 Women's Housing Conference, October 14-15-16, 1958.

Jack Eyman, president of the association which is an affiliate of the National Association of Home Builders, pointed out that the entries for the contest must be received by September 19, 1958, and that the winner would be announced on October 1.

Judges in the contest are Mrs. Eleanor Silverman of The Sun newspapers, Lafayette; Ivan Goyak, supervisor, First District, Richmond; Reed Buffington, assistant superintendent, Contra Costa County Junior College District, Martinez; V. A. "Spike" Fink, president of the Contra Costa County Development Association, Pittsburg; Jack R. Eyman, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, Inc., Lafayette.

One of the requirements of the essay contest is that a completed questionnaire accompany each essay. The questionnaire is not signed as the answers given in the questionnaires are not to be considered in determining the winner of the essay contest but as stated before, to assist the home building industry in providing the type of home the public desires in the price category in which he plans to build.

This effort to learn the whys and wherefores of women's preferences in the home has been undertaken by the United Industry for Housing and the National Association of Home Muilders.

The Industry Committee includes the manufacturers and subcontractors who supply the materials and services for the home.

Cancer Society Seats Officers, Hears Speaker

California leads the nation and scientists of Bay Area institutions lead California in award of funds made available for cancer research by the American Cancer Society, Dr. Victor Richards of Stanford University School of Medicine said at the cancer society's Contra Costa Branch annual meeting Wednesday night at Concord.

Dr. Richards outlined current developments in research on cancer, the disease which today strikes two families out of every three.

He is a member of the board of directors of the San Francisco Branch of the American Cancer Society and a member of the editorial boards of California Medicine and the American Journal of Surgery.

New officers installed at the dinner meeting were Dr. Frederick A. Pellegrin of Walnut Creek, president, and Dr. Charles J. Hart, Walnut Creek, first vice president.

The retiring president, Dr. A. R. Reinke, Concord, was installed as second vice president for the coming year.

Dr. Jonas Schreider of Walnut Creek took over as secretary and Julian Stern of Lafayette as treasurer.

The cancer society's work throughout the county during the calendar year concluded was reviewed during the meeting by Dr. Reinke. This year's inclusive program will embrace cancer research, education and day-to-day

Art Center to Sponsor Classes in Mosaic Work

In answer to many requests, the Valley Art Center will again sponsor mosaic classes this fall in Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek, according to Mrs. Richard Ward, president.

The mosaic course will be divided into six weekly two-hour sessions and will utilize colorful Venetian glass, tiles and pebbles fashioned into a variety of permanently useful art objects for the home and garden. Classes must be limited in size, and registrations are to be made directly with the instructor on a first come, first served basis. No prior experience is necessary.

The mosaic classes are scheduled as follows:

In Orinda, begining Wednesday, October 1, at the home of Instructor Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, 73 La Cuesta, telephone CL 4-2192.

In Lafayette, at the home of Mrs. Rawlings Simon, 4141 Los Arabis, CL 4-2720, starting Wednesday, September 24.

In Walnut Creek at the home of teacher Mrs. Peter Howard, 2385 Walnut Boulevard, YE 4-2435, at a time to be arranged.

There is a tuition and materials fee for the classes sponsored by the Valley Art Center as part of the non-profit, educational group's fall program. If sufficient interest is shown, classes in jewelry-making, painting and ceramics also will be scheduled, Mrs. Ward said.

Art Association to Hear Speaker, Monday

The next monthly Diablo Art Association meeting will be held on Monday at 8 p.m. at Walnut Creek's Recreation Center.

Mrs. Lida Lawson, program chairman, has arranged to have Earnest Van Harlingen, public relations director of Grumbachers, Inc., discuss new art materials and colors. The public is invited.

Van Harlingen will demonstrate some of these new materials and also show slides on creating painting from materials found in nature. He was formerly director of Sacramento's Crocker Art Gallery. He is a Fellow of England's Royal Society of Arts and heads Northern California Arts, Inc., of Sacramento. His watercolors are known statewide and he has served on juries for several galleries and shows.

A coffee-time will follow the talk and members and guests may bring their work in for informal discussion.

Owen Nelson, membership chairman, said the following people have recently joined the association: Mrs. Ida Nardini, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Trenberth, Albert Hicks and George Forni of Walnut Creek; Mr. and Mrs. W. Hirschkind, Sally Matheson and Janet Eklund of Martinez; Aileen Greer of Alamo; Marge Randall, Ruth Hussey and Jack Galvin of Danville; Edna Kristick and Gene Speck of Concord; Thom Forgason and Nan Brooks of Lafayette, and Burt Brown of Pleasant Hill.

Walnut Creek's Festival will include the association's Fourth Annual Art Show at the Recreation Center.

All new works are now being readied for show and the public will be the judge this year by voting for their favorites.

Cash awards and ribbon prizes will be awarded on the basis of popular ballot. Many of the works will be for sale and art lovers are invited to view the gallery.

Family Safety Study Planned By PTA Council

A county-wide family safety study will be conducted by the Mt. Diablo Council, California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The decision was made at a June meeting held in Walnut Creek. The project will aid the County Health Department program.

This survey, according to John Weil, safety chairman of Mt. Diablo Council, is financially supported by a grant to the County Health Department from the United States Public Health Service.

It is hoped that information will be obtained which will lead to new approaches in the effort to reduce accidents, resulting in human and financial loss.

The general session went on record as approving such a survey and sending a call to its members to assist with volunteers for interviewing families throughout the Council area.

Mrs. Allan Fuller, council president, stated that since concern for health and safety of children is one of the principal reasons for the existence of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, she could foresee no possible problem in obtaining the necessary volunteers.

Glen Max, Council Men's Participation chairman, stated that it is imperative that men take an active interest in elementary and secondary education.

The Parent-Teacher Associations must make more effort to draw the men into participation at all levels as here is an excellent training area for active participation in public education.

Public Speaking Class Begins

The Public Speaking Class of Acalanes Evening Night School started Wednesday in Room 105, Acalanes High School. Instructor is Sherwood Knight.

Persons interested may sign up as soon as possible. The size of the class is limited.

Salvation Army Seeks Clothing

The Salvation Army is appealing to the public to donate no-longer-needed clothing, furniture and household items necessary to continue the Army's Men's Social Service Center rehabilitation program.

Free pick up service may be arranged by calling the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce, YEllowstone 4-2000.

Donated articles collected by the Red Shield truck are repaired by the homeless man, many of whom are alcoholics, at the Men's Social Service Center in Oakland.

Repairing discards serves as work therapy. The sale of reconditioned articles at modest prices to low-income families provides the only funds to operate the rehabilitation center.

The Salvation Army salvage truck can be identified by the large Red Shield on the van.

Dramateurs Plan Play Auditions

First auditions for plays to be presented by the Dramateurs during the fall and winter season will be held between 8 and 11 p.m. Monday in Lafayette Town Hall.

Carl Rasmussen, director in charge of casting, urged all interested persons to try out.

All plays will be staged in Town Hall, recently acquired by the Dramateurs under terms of a master lease.

THEY'RE FRINGED

Fringe edges belts, blouses, even hems of many fashions.

'Don Carlo' Is Popular

In response to overwhelming interest of local and out-of-town opera-goers, the San Francisco Opera has announced an extra performance of its new "Don Carlo" in a special presentation on Sunday afternoon, October 19 at 2 o'clock. Tickets will go on sale at the Opera-Symphony Box Office, and all Bay Area agencies, Tuesday morning.

The all-star cast, headed by the new Italian tenor Piero Miranda Ferraro, in the title role, will include Christel Goltz, soprano, as Elisabeth, mezzo-soprano Grace Hoffman as Princess Eboli, baritone Frank Guarrera as Rodrigo, basses Arnold Van Mill and Lorenzo Alvary as Philip II and the grand inquisitor and Mark Elyn, bass-baritone, as the friar. Georges Sebastian conducts and Paul Hager is in charge of staging.

Contractors List New Members

New members of the Contra Costa County Contractors Association have received their Code of Ethics and certificates of membership, it was announced.

They are as follows:

Burnsworth Construction Co., Pleasant Hill; Crocker-Anglo National Bank, Walnut Creek; Frank Hearne, Inc., Builder, Danville; Hodge Powell, Builder, Danville; Benson Enterprises, Inc., San Leandro; The Lance Mortgage Co., Walnut Creek.

Jack Eyman, president of the association, presented awards for a recent membership contest to George Concannon of Walnut Creek, Dick Donovan of Pleasant Hill; Bob McAdam of Orinda; Louis LaBrie of Walnut Creek, Johnson Clark of Lafayette; Frank Jackl of Concord, Allan Fuller of Lafayette, Jack Eyman of Lafayette.

EBMUD Is Host To Army Unit; Orinda In Tour

The East Bay Municipal Utility District was host to a group of Army Reserve men of the 406th Medical Company from Los Angeles during the Reserve Unit's tour of duty last week. John W. McFarland, EBMUD's General Manager, reported.

The tour lasted all day and started at San Pablo Dam where the officer in charge, Capt. G. McFarland (no relation to the General Manager) and his men inspected the area.

David Reeser of the Utility District's Sanitary and Distribution Division, conducted the military guests. The group then visited the Orinda Filter Plant, where they watched the backwashing of one of the EBMUD's large sand filters. One hundred thousand gallons of filtered water is used each time a filter is washed. At Orinda there are 20 filters, and each one is washed approximately every 48 hours.

After luncheon, the men visited the Upper San Leandro Filter Plant and Water Laboratory, where they inspected the modern testing equipment, including a radioactivity sealer which provides the EBMUD with a record of daily radioactivity in the atmosphere.

Complete designation of the Army Reserve Unit is the 406th Medical Company (Preventive Medicine), Hazard Park USARC, Los Angeles. This is the second such group to visit EBMUD this summer.

Previously 50 officers and men from Fort Rosecrans USAR School, Presidio of San Francisco, made a similar tour of inspection of the District's water purification facilities.

Station Changes Call Letters

Contra Costa Broadcasting Corporation has announced that the call letters of KATT were changed to K-KIS effective September 15.

K-KIS broadcasts with 5000 watts at 990 on the dial. K-KIS will continue its program policy of continuous music and news plus special programs embracing civic activities in Contra Costa County.

Jewel, Waldie Appear at Demo Women Meeting

Howard Jewel, Democratic candidate for congressman from the sixth district, and Jerome Waldie, Democratic candidate for the tenth assembly district (Contra Costa County), spoke Saturday evening at a buffet dinner garden party sponsored by the Contra Costa Democratic Women's Club held at the Emmett Thompson home on Sunny Court, Walnut Creek.

About 100 people heard Jewel challenge his Republican opponent to campaign as a Republican and to discuss the issues of "right-to-work, the missile lag, brink-of-war statesmanship in foreign affairs," and to "identify himself with the head of his ticket, Senator Knowland." Instead, Jewel charged, Baldwin is hiding his party affiliation and is avoiding discussion of the important issues by making the race "into a popularity contest of good-guyism."

Jerome Waldie called attention to the expected redistricting of California's congressional and assembly districts "from the gerrymandered mess" which adds or subtracts thousands of constituents from one district or another.

Madcap Professor Picks 'em (Sun Sports Staff Resigns)

By SOSS OPPLE

It's the mad grid season again as opening games get under way this weekend.

It's really out on the limb, as the saying goes, to predict the opener, but here goes—read 'em and weep!

LAS LOMAS PLAYS St. Francis from down the Peninsula and while little is known about the visitors—they had better be rough and ready. The pick Las Lomas, 25—St. Francis, 6.

The Knights are loaded and eager. Coach George DeKlotz has lost but three in two years and isn't about to lose this one. A big line and able backfield tell the story.

Pleasant Hill at San Ramon. Take the Rams by 20-7.

THE RAMS RACKED the Wolves last year and the Wolves are eager for revenge. Backfield speed will be the difference.

Acalanes at Alhambra. The Dons are light and then in reverse the Bulldogs of Alhambra rate as the power in the Eastbay league.

So it's the Bulldogs 13-7. The Dons will be outweighed, but figure to make it close with defensive play which should be ahead of offense at this stage of the game.

PIEDMONT OPENS at home tonight against Fremont. Could be wrong, but it looks like the Piedmont Highlanders all the way.

Mt. Diablo opens with Tech High at Concord. The Devils will win 20-14 in a good tight ball game. Diablo's speed could give the city slickers trouble.

Diablo Valley College under Coach Jack Danilovich hosts Oakland Jaycee at Antioch in a night go tomorrow. This will be a rough and ready one for an opener as rivalry here is keen. It's Diablo Valley 26-19 in a good scoring contest.

Cal plays the College of Pacific. Neither club is going to the Rose Bowl and the crowd will be on the spare side. The score: Cal, 13—COP, 7.

THE SAN FRANCISCO 49ers play the Philadelphia Eagles and while the script calls for a 49er win it could be a wild and wooly one with Coach Buck Shaw coming back to haunt the 49ers where he once held forth as coach.

Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, former Acalanes High School grid star, will give them trouble with his passing and punting. It's a quarter toss, but the edge goes to the 49ers 31-26.

Sir Francis Drake Plays Las Lomas in Opener

It looked for a while as if the lights would be out tonight at Las Lomas but they are definitely on and the season opening kickoff is set for 8 p.m. sharp.

Original plans called for Sir Francis Drake of Marin County to furnish the opposition but a change of coaches resulted in a mixup and a canceled game as far as Las Lomas was concerned.

An appeal for an opponent brought a response from St. Francis, which competes in the private school league on the Peninsula.

Little is known of the opposition except they are located at Mt. View and their league is a good one. It will mark their first showing in the local area.

The Knights, on the other hand, have been runners up in the Diablo Valley League for two seasons in a row, and rate high in the newly-formed Foothill Division, some even ranking them as favorites.

Size and experience plus the fact many played together the past two seasons means the Knights won't be easy to handle. In Steve Moore and Don Hopkins the Los Lomas eleven has a good potential as far as the aerial game goes.

Clark Ransome, a standout all around athlete has been shifted from end to fullback and his 195 pounds, spread over a six-foot frame, could provide power that would make the Knight grid machine hit on all eleven.

The Knights have been experimenting a bit at the guard spot as Mike Hair is out with an infection. Floyd Blower, an all-county tackle, may move into the spot. Another problem is the center, with Jim Foreman or John Reschert getting the call. Only late workouts will decide the pivot problem.

Tentative starters for the Knights: LE Dick Dodge (170), LT or LG Floyd Blower (187), C Jim Foreman or John Rescher, RG Tom Leonard (195), RT Dave Weill (255), RE Randy Olson (160), QB Don Hopkins (170), RH Jim Hemstalk (155), LH Steve Moore (165), F Clark Ransome (195).

St. Mary's Frosh Squad Has Good Average Height

With a new freshman class joining the home of the Galloping Gaels, their ranks are being scanned to see if the yearlings can come up with a basketball combination to match such outstanding men as last year's Al Claiborne, Tom Meschery, Joe Gardere, Jack Dold and Gene Womack. Their record of 17 wins and no losses will be hard to match.

The outstanding prospects for the Frosh basketball squad lack the presence of the big men like Claiborne (6'8") and Meschery (6'6"). But they do sport good average height. For example—All-CIF forward from Los Angeles' Mt. Carmel High, Bill Leedom, scales in at 6'3" as does El Cerrito's All-American Prep, All-Northern California, Phil Hart. Some of the others who are also good prospects are Hamilton Holmes from St. Mary's High in Berkeley and Barry Hayward of Marin Catholic.

Coach Bob Hagler forecasts a promising season but doesn't guarantee an unblemished slate.

Stanford will provide the curtain raiser (for the 1958-59 season) on December 5 at the Cow Palace. Other games will be played with Santa Clara, California and USF Frosh teams.

Matador Practice Continues 1 Week Will Draw a Bye

The Miramonte Matadors will have a chance to bolster their play with another week of practice before they get a touch of outside competition in as much as they draw a bye in this week's opener.

Coach Dan Brooks and his assistant Dan Phillips have been working overtime to work out the kinks and gain finesse.

Stress has been laid on the passing with the good right arm of Floyd Blaney receiving plenty of work.

The Matadors will get a good look at their first opponent, Pacifica, as they play Riordan at West Pittsburg this afternoon.

On paper, the Matadors seem to have a first eleven that will do alright although they are on the light side as far as varsity ball is concerned and have a big problem with depth.

A definite starting lineup will be forthcoming next week with scrimmage sessions on tap which will go a long way toward deciding the starters.

Hardtop Highlights

By JEAN McGUIRE

Santa Rosa's Hugh Purdy stole the 25-lap main event away from Wally Baker Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway, but not without a flight. Baker, who is trying to increase his lead in point standings, did everything possible to win this main, but just couldn't outdrive the gentleman from Santa Rosa.

Cliff Bennett, Pacheco's finest, looked plenty good in his "Big Orange" number 25. This is the second time in a row that Bennett's style has really shown through.

HE CAME in second in the second heat, and only a wreck in the final lap of the semi main kept him from placing up front in that event.

Jack Huddleston, also of Concord, is looking progressively better in his rose and black number 108. This is a brand new car, and Jack is finally getting the bugs out. Huddleston came in fourth in the second heat and ninth in the semi main.

Hope you all noticed the "Gorgeous" sign on the right side of Jack Clayton's number 88. It depicts a very natty looking wolf complete with top hat, tux, and lolling tongue, under the impressive title "Mayor of Pleasant Hill." Clayton placed seventh in the fourth heat and the main event despite the fact that his car was not handling well.

HUGH PAYNE of Concord, who brought a new car (number 75) out last week, is still having trouble. He appeared in the second heat, but retired to the rear of th pack to try and work out the mechanical difficulties. Payne also ran the main.

His brother Doe is driving number 73 since his regular car blew the engine. This car and Cliff Bennett's number 25, are the sharpest looking team cars on the track. With that brilliant orange color, they look like the Goldust Twins."

Chet Stroock is back with us once again, and his number 10 looks as good as ever. Strock went into the wall on the far turn, but returned to take the fourth spot in the semi main.

HERE'S A HUGE welcome back for Herb Williams of Walnut Creek. Herb was the original (and best) Purple People Eater. Williams returned to the track after several months absence, driving number 58. He started last in the "C" race, and in one lap worked his way to the front of the pack. He led for several laps until his ignition system went out. All he needs is a car that runs, and watch his dust.

Also in the C race was Howard Southwick, number 44 of Concord. Southwick is now a full fledged member of "The Upside Down Club" passing his entrance requirements in the first turn. He was shaken up but unhurt.

Make plans to be at the speedway September 27. This will be the last 100-lap event of the season, and will be run in a really new way. The race will be put on similar to the Monza, Italy classic.

Baseball Players Honored At Dinner by Association

League officials, sponsors and coaches met at Johnson's Restaurant Saturday evening for a dinner to mark the end of a most successful year and the presentation of trophies and awards to the winning clubs.

The affair was pronounced a big success by President Roy Middlekauff, who handled details of the dinner and reported that more than 75 were in attendance.

GORDON McNULTY acted as master of ceremonies and Erwin Mattson, Acalanes High School baseball coach, presented awards.

Winners were given a set of certificates to go to the individual players. The coaches received lighters, suitably engraved, and an engraved trophy went to the sponsor.

The recipients were:

MAJOR LEAGUE winner, Lafesta Meat, sponsored by Leo Pasquini, coached by Leo Calestini.

Senior League winner, Berkeley Farms. Trophy accepted by Lonne Clinkenbeard, coached by Ted Clark.

Minor League winner, Lafayette Pharmacy, sponsored by Mort Sparling, coached by Bill Smith.

PEARL BARCROFT was introduced as the only woman manager in the league, while special tribute went to Mr. and Mrs. Judd Van Matre, who as individuals served as sponsors of teams in the league.

In addition they donated a garage area which has been converted into a first rate storage room.

Putts — Mrs. Rossell and Mrs. Kusserow, both 26.

Dons Face Dog Bites In Martinez

The Acalanes Dons meet up with the Alhambra Bulldogs in the season's opener tonight under the lights of the Martinez field.

The Dons have a club on the light side and are not too deep in reserves. In contrast, the Alhambra Bulldogs have a veteran eleven with size and speed plus depth that could well wear the Dons down.

DON COACHES Jack Carhart and Buzz Williams have gone all out to condition their club so that a good number will be able to go the distance working both on offense and defense.

In this category fall such players as end Dewaine Stults, tackle Jim Walker, guard Jim Holden and center Phil Condit.

Stults and Condit at 185 are the "heavys" in the starting line.

ALHAMBRA, on the other hand, boasts a pair of 200 pound tackles in Don Wolldrige and John Wyffels.

The Dons run from variations of the Split-T while Alhambra uses a Winged-T and Single Wing which poses double defensive problems.

Alhambra's Rich McLaughlin is a speedster who operates as a ball carrier with nerve and swerve and could spell plenty of trouble.

The Don backs are on the light side with the heaviest being George McMean at 153.

PH Rams, Wolves Clash in Opener On Danville Grid

Tonight the Rams of Pleasant Hill and the Wolves of San Ramon open at Danville with an 8 p.m. starting time set under the arcs of San Ramon High.

Coach Hal Briggs of the Rams has high hopes for his crew and is enthusiastically awaiting the opening kickoff.

GRADUATION DEPLETED his starters of 1957 for the most part, but he has reportedly come up with a crew of hustlers that figure to give opponents a night of it.

In Sid Quick at 136 and Tom Welb at 137 he has a pair of scat backs that can go once they break into the open.

They also have size and ability in backs Roger Leonard (163), Roger Foulk (188) and Pete McMillin (171).

BUT TWO SENIORS, Bill Locatelli and Roger Leonard grace the squad, with the rest being sophomores and juniors.

Briggs is especially high on a junior tackle, Walt Dathe, whom he picks as one of the area's best prospects.

COACH MARV ASHBY of San Ramon feels his squad is well ahead of last year and that he is much better set in his second year at the coaching of the Wolves.

Everyone was reported in grand shape with the exception of end Jim Furlong, who reinjured a knee and has dropped out. He sat out last year, but decided to give it a whirl in his senior year. When the joint acted up he decided to call it quits.

MIKE OAKES, a regular last season, takes over the flank spot.

San Ramon holds an edge in the weight department and could give the Rams plenty of trouble with their eight seniors out of 11 starters.

Tentative starters for Pleasant Hill: LE Pete Jacobsen (165), LT Mike Ryan (195), LG Doug Eraunius (160), C Butch Crowder (185), RG Lynn Freels (165), RT Walt Dathe (195), RE Bob Stice (170), QB Jim Maples (161), LH Roger Leonard (163), RH Tom Webb (137), F Roger Foulk (188).

Diablo Valley Ready for Jaycee

Two scrimmages highlighted practice at Diablo Valley College as the Vikings prepared for their opening game against Oakland Juinor College at Antioch tomorrow.

"The Vikings, emphasizing running and line plays, have shown improvement in all positions," said Coach Jack Danilovich.

Danilovich tentatively announced the first and second string players. He indicated changes as the season progresses.

Dennis Coffee, Mt. Diablo, and Al Hurtado, Pittsburg, will quarter back; Veterans Myron Robb, Pittsburg, will start at left half with George Darrow, Mt. Diablo, at the full back slot. Rookies John Nord, Pittsburg. John Pratt, Pleasant Hill, Tom Larscheid, Pleasant Hill, and Marshall Kulju, Antioch, will round out the back field.

Playing at left end will be veteran Mike Hart, Alhambra, and Don Luxemberg, Pleasant Hill, at right end, Steve Jordon, Acalanes, Dave Kirkpatrick, Antioch, both first year men.

The line, predominately freshmen, will be Eugene Nigro, Billings, Mont., or Pat Furlong, San Ramon at center; guards, Roger Gregoire, Pittsburg, Marty Day, Alhambra, Joe Felix, Pacifica, and Nick Gonzales, Pittsburg. John Schwammel, San Ramon, veteran Frank Malynn, Acalanes, Donald Bo, Mt. Diablo, and Dave Craff, San Ramon, will fill the tackle positions.

With the exceptioin of one injury and sore muscles, practice sessions have been up to the coaches' expectations. Dave Graff, tackle, suffered a knee injury and will be out for a few weeks.

Piedmont Highlanders Vie On Oakland's Turf

If the Piedmont players are as enthusiastic and as ready as their coach, Bob Muenther, they stand ready to chalk up their first win of the 1958 season tonight when they host Fremont High of Oakland.

The Piedmont club is usually well up on their play in early season games and are probably a bit farther along than their opponents, especially in view of the fact that they are well stocked with a group of capable seniors.

IN FACT, only one sophomore and a pair of juniors have managed to crack the starting lineup.

The Piedmont Highlanders are reported to be coming up with a multiple offense, but will probably stick pretty much to fundamental plays as the scouts will be aplenty—especially since they were picked as the pennant winners in the new Foothill Division of the Diablo Athletic League.

On that basis chances are that the Highlanders will play under wraps as much as possible and use a host of players, unwrapping only if necessary to win.

EYES WILL BE on Steve Wilcox whom Muenther lists as the best quarterback in the Bay Area and an All-Northern California prospect.

In End Jim Tagagert he has a prime target who was one of the top receivers in the ACAL last season.

The lone sophomore in the tentative starting lineup is Bobby Jones at fullback at 170.

Others listed with positions and weights are as follows: LE Mike Miller (164), LT Buzz Redford (179), LG Covey McKnight (180), C Paul Parkhurst (175), RG John Austin (150), RT Ken Ambrose (195), RE Jim Taggert (180), QB Steve Wilcox (190), RH Kevin Hogan (166), LH John Griffith (172), F Bobby Jones (170).

Ambrose and Miller are juniors—all others being seniors with the exception of sophomore Bobby Jones.

Parents to Meet At Fairview

The Fairview Parents Club will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the school to organize for the coming year.

Temporary officers, named by a group which met in June are Don Laston, president; Mrs. Barbara Cullen, first vice president; Ted Collins, second vice president; Mrs. Kay Inskip, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Virginia Pennington, recording secretary; Malcolm Nielsen, treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Akers, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Cullen, chairman of a group which drew up temporary by-laws, said that a letter regarding organization of the club was not received by many parents.

She reported that at the meeting Wednesday parents may decide whether to elect a new nominating committee which would, in turn, nominate candidates and elect officers; or approve the present officers as permanent; or nominate candidates from the floor to run against present officers.

Tea Planned For Parents

Plans for the Moraga Del Rey annual Welcome Tea were discussed at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Standish Massie last week. The tea will be held Tuesday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the school library.

This tea is the first event planned by the Parents Club and it affords a fine opportunity for parents and teachers to become acquainted. The room mothers of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will be hostesses for the tea. They are the Mesdames Buzzini, McKenzie, Winquist, Tromberg, Baker, Hubner Walker, La Plant and deLaveaga. Mrs. Herbert Goranson, president of the newly formed Parents Club will act as chairman.

This year the club plans to hold room meetings with the teachers in the evenings so that fathers will have a chance to attend and become acquainted with their children's class programs. These meetings are scheduled to run through the month of October.

The first meeting of the Parents Club will be held on Tuesday, October 21 at 8 p.m. at the school. Joseph Sheaff, Orinda school superintendent, will be the speaker.

Cranston Speaks About Duties Of Controller

Alan Cranston, Democratic candidate for state controller, was guest of honor last week at a punch party held on the patio of the William D. McKee home at 781 Morgan Road. Cranston spoke informally on responsibilities and authority vested in the little understood office of Controller.

"The key man in assessing, collecting and spending your state taxes is the controller," he said. "The next controller will have the responsibility for putting into effect the policies of the new state administration on more than a dozen state agencies and boards interwoven in the whole fabric of state government."

Cranston, a Palo Alto real estate, investment and property management man, was founder and first president of the California Democratic Council.

Present at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. William McKee and Mrs. Julia Robinson, coordinator of the Cranston campaign for Contra Costa County. Other guests were Mesdames Robert C. Clark, Herbert Breckling, Alan Gittelsohn, Richard Alpen, Katherine Garges, Burton L. Wood, James Barcelon, Bill Borowiak and Michael Montalbano.

NOTES:

A. On June 3, 1958 the voters of the District at a special bond election approved a measure authorizing the District to incur a bonded indebtedness of $252,000,000 to finance, in part, a ten-year construction program designed to meet an anticipated increase in water consumption due to forecasted population growth and expansion of the area served. In addition, available revenue from operations of approximately $30,000,000 will be used to complete the financing of this expansion program.

B. Plant, property, and equipment are stated at cost, excepting certain properties which are recorded at appraised or estimated value to the District.

C. Amount due to the Retirement System for retirement allowances granted and currently in effect and to be met from future appropriations. No provision has been made to cover future liability for benefits to be granted subsequent to June 30, 1958, on account of services rendered prior to the establishment of the Retirement System, nor for current service retirement allowances and death benefits in excess of accumulated contributions.

D. Contract commitments for construction work to be performed and future deliveries of material aggregate approximately $2,276,000 at June 30, 1958.

E. The District closes its accounts promptly as of the end of each month, with the result that there are always unrecorded items of expense from month to month and year to year; at June 30, 1958 the unrecorded liabilities and accruals for expenses were more than offset by the unrecorded and unbilled revenues accrued at that date.

F. The District is a defendant or otherwise involved in litigations and condemnation suits, any liability for which is not determinable at June 30, 1958.

A. The District closes its accounts promptly as of the end of each month, with the result that there are always unrecorded items of expense from month to month and year to year; at June 30, 1958 the unrecorded liabilities and accruals for expenses were more than offset by the unrecorded and unbilled revenues accrued at that date.

B. The District is a defendant or otherwise involved in litigation and condemnation suits, any liability for which is not determinable at June 30, 1958.

INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' OPINION

Board of Directors
East Bay Municipal Utility District,
Oakland, California.

We have examined the balance sheets of the EAST BAY MUNICIPAL UTILITY DISTRICT'S WATER SYSTEM AND SPECIAL DISTRICT NO. 1, as of June 30, 1958, and the related statements of revenues, expenses and contributions for the fiscal year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the respective financial positions of the East Bay Municipal Utility District's Water System and Special District No. 1, at June 30, 1958, and the results of their operations for the fiscal year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

County United Crusade Goal Set at $502,792

Residents of Contra Costa will be asked to make gift donations totaling $502,792 during the 1958 United Crusade campaign starting Monday, Jack Mullen, general campaign chairman, announced today.

In making the announcement Mullen stated, "There can be no reasonable doubt that this county goal represents basic minimum needs in order to maintain current levels of service and to eliminate the need for supplementary fund raising by member agencies."

"THE BOARD of Governors of the United Bay Area Crusade and county representatives starting with each agency board and working through county budget committees to the UBAC Allocations Committee and the Executive Committee realized that this year's goal represents minimum needs in order to maintain current levels of service.

Duncan Knudsen, president of Contra Costa United Crusade said, "We believe this goal can be met as our countywide organization has more background and experience, and if we use the available tools, our goal will be attainable.

"We have the ingredients needed for success—a strong, realistic appeal; a compelling need to serve more people adequately; people financially able to give the money; and thousands of dedicated volunteers. It is therefore up to us to tell the story of the Crusade in this crucial year and this we believe is being done. There is no question but that we have more people aware of what we are trying to do. Therefore, we are looking forward to this being our best campaign."

THIS GOAL—which is 16.35 per cent over last year's monies received—has been broken down on the local levels as follows: For East Contra Costa (Pittsburg, Antioch and Delta areas) $84,110; for Central Contra Costa (Diablo Valley, Concord, Martinez) $156,002; for West Contra Costa (Richmond, El Cerrito, San Pablo, El Sobrante, Pinole, Rodeo and Crockett) $262,680.

A total of 55 agencies in the county will benefit from this year's drive.

These are Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation; Contra Costa and West Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy Associations; U.S.O.; American Red Cross; Community Chest of West Contra Costa; Boy Clubs of El Cerrito, Richmond, San Pablo, Martinez and Pittsburg; Camp Fire Girls; Catholic Social Service; Community Welfare Council; Crockett Playground; Girl Scout Councils; Boy Scout Councils; Guidance for Retarded Children.

OTHERS ARE Herrick Memorial Hospital Clinics; Jewish Community Center of Richmond; North Richmond Neighborhood House; Salvation Army; YMCA; YWCA; Urban League; Community Welfare Councils of West, East and Central; Community Welfare Fund.

Still others are Well Baby Clinic; West Pittsburg and Shore Acres Youth Council; Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County; Concord "Learn-to-Swim;" Ministerial Fund; Mental Health Society of Central Contra Costa.

The five county United Bay Area Crusade goal has been set at $11,750,000. Other counties' goals are San Francisco $3,557,468; Alameda, $2,889,138; San Mateo, $669,784; and Marin $169,258.

More than 250 health, welfare and youth-serving agencies in all five counties will derive varying portions of their 1959 budgets from the campaign.

THE AGENCIES are community child care and family counselling services, youth programs, services for the sick, aged and handicapped, as well as Red Cross Chapters, Salvation Army Units, USO and local branches of national health appeals.

Not included in county goals is $3,961,560 to be raised by a special "blue chips" division of the campaign which will solicit corporate and individual gifts of $1000 or more.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

These days there's no telling where you'll find transistors, those mighty mites developed by phone people. They've been whirling through space inside U.S. satellites, helping to radio information back to earth. And, down here, they're helping to bring you good phone service. The special transistor held by the phone man above, for instance, helps speed out-of-town calls. For it automatically picks the fastest voice paths to the town you're calling. On top of that, it enables more and more folks to dial their own long distance calls. Transistors are among a whole host of tiny, space-saving parts we use to bring better service to you.

Sheriff Harry A. Brown discusses with Fred Plettl, Telephone Company Service Engineer, the new, toll-free emergency telephone number now in effect in Contra Costa County. "Enterprise 1-1560" has been designated as the call number for the Sheriff's Department. In addition to the call being toll free, the number is to be used exclusively for emergencies between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. and on weekends. Residents of Contra cannot be dialed directly. In order to reach the Sheriff's Department in an emergency during these hours, ask the Costa County should remember this Enterprise number operator for Enterprise 1-1560. The operator will place the call, which will be answered promptly at the Sheriff's main office in Martinez. It would be a good idea to include this number with the other emergency numbers on the first page of your telephone book.

Re-Appraisal Teams Head For Lafayette-Orinda Area

By NORMAN COLBY

Property re-appraisal, dreaded by some residents, Messianically praised by others, is coming to the central county communities, including Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda.

About 45 appraisers are working their way through the Mt. Diablo Unified School District area, and have started on commercial and residential property in the Walnut Creek School District boundaries.

They will be finished in the Mt. Diablo area and Pleasant Hill in time for inclusion of their new valuations in 1959-60 county budget tax calculations.

THE WORK WILL take from six months to a year in Walnut Creek.

Appraisers will move into Lafayette and Orinda probably next year.

Re-appraising is a slow and detailed process.

The program has been undertaken on an overall basis for the first time in the country's history. It has been advocated for years by County Assessor C. L. Dunklee. Only this year has his department been allocated enough additional staff members to do the job.

THEY HAVE completed their tasks in Antioch, Pittsburg and other eastern county areas.

Few commercial property owners, especially those who have been holding empty lots for years and waiting as the values go up and up, have had any complaints about the past failure of the county to re-appraise.

Also, many homeowners have not been eager for re-appraisal, and have expressed apprehension that their home values will be "upgraded." They fear higher taxes, although this is not necessarily true, even where the new appraisal is higher. Many re-appraisals will probably be lower, say the experts.

Happiest, it appears, are the civic leaders who for years have been working for the commercial and "light" industrialization of the area, and a resulting broader tax base.

FOR YEARS they have seen industry representatives, at first interested in local land, turn to other areas when the price suddenly and mysteriously skyrockets.

With their land listed by the county (which provides the cities with figures) at far below the "market value," and resulting taxes far below what they should be, owners could well afford to "wait and see," even through the offered price was more than fair.

And the mighty tax burden continued to grind upon the hapless homeowner, in the absence of any other alternative.

The re-appraisal program should change all that.

Early last year, Dunklee told members of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council, who had expressed anger about the situation, that re-appraisal was on the way.

Now that it is here, he will be asked to outline the program at the September meeting of the Council.

RALPH BECKER, the Council's Planning and Zoning Committee chairman, earlier called the assesments, especially of empty land, "ridiculously low."

He added that a proper upgrading of values would put more empty land on the market, resulting in more prosperity.

Becker said that many property owners are "reticent to develop land with values increasing each year at capital gains tax rates while property taxes are so favorable."

He listed properties, some actually valued at $80,000 to $100,000 but taxed on the appraisal values of only $1000 to $10,000.

HE SAID THAT in many cases, homeowners are paying as much as business property owners, where the business-zoned land is being held for speculation.

He said that his group was not trying to discourage business but to encourage it according to the Master Plan which states certain areas are best for business and industry, and others are not.

The word also reached Walnut Creek leaders, who have been eyeing their "Planned Working District" land, the hope of a bigger tax base for the city. It has been unclaimed with one exception.

Even residential Lafayette would like to see a more extensive retail business "base."

A. W. GLENDINNING, the county's chief appraiser, told The Sun, "Although it is true that the land values and appraisals in Pittsburg went down, this was due very much to the closing of Camp Stoneman.

"Generally the land values have gone up in Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and in the central part of the county," he said.

"In Walnut Creek, the commercial development has doubled or tripled in recent years, and appraisals will go up accordingly. The land values as they stand now are extremely low."

Glendinning explained how the appraising is done.

"The California state law prescribes that we assess all property in proportion to its market value, and that is the basis for making our appraisals.

"THIS IS NOT its potential value, but how much it will bring on the market at this time.

"A lot of empty land has been rezoned to commercial and industrial since it was assessed years ago, and they will now go up in value on the assessmend rolls.

Anti-Litterbug Campaign Paying Off in State

California's anti-litterbug campaign, sparked by "Parky, the tidy kangaroo," is beginning to pay off.

Residents and visitors are coming awake to the menace of litter strewn along our roadsides and beaches and in our parks and picnic grounds.

Piles of rubbish are breeding places for vermin. Sunlight magnified through a discarded bottle can cause a fire. Broken glass and tin cans slash auto tires and the feet of unwary sunbathers.

There is no reason to litter. There is every reason not to.

In areas where there is firm litter-law enforcement, the number of brush fires has been greatly are declining.

People are using the litter cans the Highway Department has placed along our main roads. They are carrying litter bags in their autos, and they are cleaning up after themselves at the end of a picnic or a day on the beach.

The State Chamber of Commerce anti-litter program, supported by oil and transportation companies, the California Brewers Association, garden clubs and other public spirited organizations is showing results.

However, the problem will not be licked until everyone does his share to keep our State free from the blight of the litterbug.

Mills College Alumnae Announces New Board

The Mt. Diablo Mills College Club is making plans for the year's activities under the direction of its president Mrs. S. C. Ramsden of Orinda.

The purpose of the club is to promote the interests of Mills College and to promote among its alumnae a spirit of fellowship and service.

The new board includes the following officers: Mesdames R. K. Charlesworth of Walnut Creek, vice-president; J. L. Scherer Jr. of Lafayette, recording secretary; James Burrsi of Lafayette, corresponding secretary; M. Gordon T. Amrein of Walnut Creek, treasurer; Herbert von Colditz of Lafayete, alumnae fund chairman; H. K. McJunkin of Concord, student recommendation chairman; J. K. MacKenzie of Walnut Creek,

Saunders Candidate for EBMUD Director's Post

H. W. Saunders, incumbent director for the East Bay Municipal Utility District, has announced hs candidacy for one of the two expiring directorships for which an election will be held this fall. His current term is one of those expiring.

A resident of Berkeley for more than 20 years, Saunders was appointed May 1, 1957, to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Thomas S. Neilson. Saunders and his wife now make their home in Lafayette at 3550 East View drive.

"I AM OFFERING my services to the water users and property owners of the district because of my familiarity with the very significant water development expansion project," Saunders said.

"This $283,000,000 10-year progam is a challenging one, and I wish to be given the opportunity to continue to serve the people of the district as a director, and, as such, will do all in my power to bring this most important program along successfully. As I will shortly retire from private business, I will be given more time and opportunity to devote my attention and abilities to utility district affairs."

For over 10 years Saunders has been vice president of the Air Reduction Pacific Company. He is a past president of the Emeryville Industries Association, and has been its secretary for 25 years.

SAUNDERS HAS also served as president of the Contra Costa Development Association, the Alameda County Crippled Children's Society, the Oakland Rotary Club, the East Bay Engineers Club, and the Athens Athletic Club, Oakland.

He is a past chairman of the Salvation Army's Advisory Board and a member of the Board of Governors of the San Francisco Bay Area Council.

Saunders has also been active in the State Chamber of Commerce, the Berkeley Manufacturers Association, the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, the California Chamber of Commerce Statewide Industrial Committee, Club, and other civic and charthe Alameda County Welfare Commission, the Oakland Tradeitable organizations.

Apparel Design Classes Set at Diablo College

Students interested in careers in the fashion industry may receive instruction in a new program, Apparel Design, to be added to the curriculum of Diablo Valley College this fall, according to Dr. George W. Madison, Dean of Instruction.

Madison added that among the careers open to students of the program are fashion designing, fashion coordination, sample making, custom tailoring, and alterations.

The class meets during the day and is open to men and women between the ages of 18 and 45.

The instructor is Mrs. Vivian E. Loomis. Mrs. Loomis has been either a student or an instructor in the following: Lucille Academy of Fashion; Butterick Sewing School; Dennison Art School; Hubbard School of Cleaning and Dyeing; National Institute of Drycleaning; graduate work at the University of California.

Some of professional experiences were Head of the Home Economics Department, Tamalpais Union High School; Head Designer; Professional Fitter and Supervisor; Manager Work Rooms; Free Lance Designer and Consultant for the Apparel Industry.

Standard seeks oil in strange places...

23½¢ of every dollar we take in goes to meet your future oil needs

On frozen plains, in the desert, in the jungle, on ocean floors—our search for oil has spread far afield as discovery becomes increasingly difficult and more costly.

The United States has less than 10% of the free world's population, but we use 55% of its oil production. Consumption is rising at a rate that will call for as much oil in the next 15 years as we produced in the last hundred.

In answer to the challenge of keeping America supplied in the future, Standard last year invested more money than ever before in oil exploration, development of producing fields, research and construction of facilities—or nearly one-fourth of every dollar we took in.

Year after year, Standard is reinvesting a big share of its income in the never-ending search for petroleum to meet the growing needs of motorists, industry, home owners, farms and the Armed Forces.

Progress in petroleum means...

Oil companies will have to invest more than 80 billion dollars in the next 10 years in the U. S. alone to find and develop the oil you will need.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA
plans ahead to serve you better
